“Tribunal” means the Value Added Tax Tribunal established under this Act;

“trustee” includes an executor and administrator; and also includes the Fiji Public Trustee Corporation Limited;

Amended Decree 31 of 2016, s223 commencement 1 December 2016.

“unconditional gift” means a payment voluntarily made to any non-profit body for the carrying on or carrying out of the purposes of that non-profit body and in respect of which no identifiable direct valuable benefit arises or may arise in the form of a supply of goods and services to the person making that payment whether that payment is enforceable or not, or any other person where that person and that other person are not independent of each other; but does not include any payment made by the State or a public authority; and “zero-rated supply” means a supply described in the Schedule 2 to this Act.

(2) For the purposes of this Act, a reference to goods and services includes a reference to goods or services.

Section 3 Meaning of the term “supply”

(1) For the purposes of this Act, the term “supply” includes all forms of supply and without limiting the generality of the term has the same meaning as in section 2 of the Sale of Goods Act 1979.
(2) Where goods and services acquired or produced by a registered person in the course or furtherance of making taxable supplies by that person are appropriated to use other than for the purposes of making those taxable supplies, the appropriation of those goods and services shall be deemed to be a supply made in the course or furtherance of that person’s taxable activity.

(3) Where goods and services acquired or produced by a registered person in the course or furtherance of a taxable activity carried on by that registered person are, under a power exercisable by another person, sold in satisfaction of a debt owed by that registered person in or towards the satisfaction of that debt owed by that registered person, those goods and services shall be deemed to be supplied by that registered person in the course of that taxable activity.

(4) Where a person ceases to be a registered person, any goods and services then forming part of the assets of a taxable activity carried on by that registered person shall be deemed to be supplied by that registered person in the course of that taxable activity immediately before that person ceases to be a registered person, unless the taxable activity is carried on by another person who, pursuant to section 28, is deemed to be a registered person.

(5) For the purpose of this Act, every public authority shall be deemed to supply goods and services to the State where any payment other than a payment under Standard Expenditure Group 1 or Standard Expenditure Group 2 is made by the State to or on behalf of the public authority.

(6) For the purposes of this Act, where any payment in the nature of a grant is made by the State to or on behalf of any person in the course or furtherance of any taxable activity, which involves or will involve the making of taxable supplies, carried on by that person, that payment shall be deemed to be consideration for a supply of goods and services by that person in the course or furtherance of that taxable activity.

(7) For the purposes of this Act, every local authority is deemed to supply goods and services to any person where any amount of rates is payable by that person to that local authority.

(8) Subject to this section, except for subsection (8A), if a registered person receives a payment under a contract of insurance, whether or not the person is a party to the contract of insurance, the payment is, to the extent that it relates to a loss incurred in the course or furtherance of the registered person’s taxable activity, deemed to be consideration received for a supply of services performed by the registered person -

(a) on the day the registered person receives the payment; and

(b) in the course or furtherance of the registered person’s taxable activity.

provided that this subsection shall not apply in respect of any payment received pursuant to a contract of insurance where the supply of that contract of insurance was –

(i) exempted;

(ii) zero rated; or

(iii) in respect of an entitlement for loss of earnings within the meaning of the Workmen’s Compensation Act 1964 or the Motor Vehicle (Third Party Insurance) Act 1948 or accidental personal injury or damages;

History

1. Amended Decree No. 42 of 2010, s3 deleted subsection (8) and substituted with a new subsection (8).
   The old subsection (8) previously read –

   “(8) Where under a contract of insurance, a registered person receives an amount by way of an indemnity payment relating to a loss incurred in respect of goods and services in the course or furtherance of making taxable supplies, that person shall, for the purpose of the application of this Decree to that person but not to the person by whom the payment is made, be deemed to have made a supply of goods and services to which the payment relates in the course or furtherance of the taxable activity, at the time when the payment is received, and the amount of the payment shall be deemed to be the consideration for that supply.”

   commencement from 1st August, 2010

2. Amended Decree No. 11 of 2012, s3 amended subsection (8) by deleting the word “goods and”, and proviso which read –

   “Provided this subsection shall not apply in respect of any indemnity payment received pursuant to a
(8A) For the purpose of this section, where, in relation to a claim made under a contract of insurance an insurer recovers an amount, other than aggravated or exemplary damages, as a result of the exercise of rights acquired by subrogation under the contract of insurance, and that amount exceeds the amount paid out by the insurer to the insured person in relation to the claim, then the insurer is deemed to have performed a supply of services in the course of its taxable activity, and the consideration for the deemed supply is the amount of the excess, and the supply of services is deemed to be performed on the day the insurer receives the amount and if there is more than one payment, on each such day.

(8B) Notwithstanding anything in this subsections (8) and (8A), where an insurer receives an amount under a contract of reinsurance, that amount is not deemed to be consideration received for a supply of services performed by the insurer.

History

1. Decree No. 42 of 2010 inserted a new subsection (8A) which read –

   “(8A) For the purposes of this section, where an insurer recovers an amount (other than aggravated or exemplary damages) as a result of the exercise of rights acquired by subrogation under a contract of insurance, the amount recovered is deemed to be consideration received for the supply of goods and services performed in the course of that insurer’s taxable activity, and a supply of goods and services is deemed to be performed on the day of the insurer’s receipt of the amount.”

   Effective from 1st August 2010.

2. Decree No. 11 of 2012 deleted (8A) and inserted a new subsection (8A) and subsection (8B).

   Effective from 1st August 2010

3. (8B) subs by Decree 11 of 2012 s3, opn 1 Aug 2010 which read –

   “(8B) notwithstanding anything in this section, a registered person who makes a payment to which subsection (8) or (8A) of section 3 applies shall not be allowed a deduction for the Value Added Tax payable under those subsections.
(9) Any contract that is a layby sale to which Part 4 of the Sale of Goods Act 1979, applies shall not constitute a supply of goods and services unless the goods to which the contract relates are delivered to the buyer and the property therein is transferred to the buyer, provided that a supply of services shall, in respect of any such contract, be deemed to take place where -

(a) a layby sale is canceled pursuant to Part 4 of the Sale of Goods Act 1979; and
(b) the seller either -
   (i) retains any amount paid to the seller to recoup that seller’s selling costs in respect of the layby sale; or
   (ii) recovers any amount (including, or in addition to, the amount referred to in subparagraph (i) of this paragraph) from the buyer -

(10) Where and to the extent that any registered person, in the course or furtherance of making taxable supplies, has or is treated to have provided an employee benefit for income tax or fringe benefit tax purposes, to any other person, the provision of that employee benefit shall be deemed to be a supply of goods and services made by that registered person in the course of a taxable activity carried on by that registered person, provided that this subsection shall not apply to any employee benefit to the extent that it has arisen by virtue of any supply of goods and services that is an exempt supply or a zero-rated supply.

[Amended Decree 44 of 2012 by inserting “fringe benefit tax” after “income tax”. Effective from 1st January 2012.]
“(11) Where a person carried on a taxable activity which involves –

(a) the supply by a person of any unprocessed produce in the course or furtherance of a taxable activity involving agriculture or the supply by a person of any unprocessed fish or other aquatic animal and plant in the course or furtherance of a taxable activity, where that supply is not a zero-rated supply in terms of the Second Schedule to this Decree; and

(b) an activity which involves the processing of that produce, fish or other aquatic animals and plants the activity referred to in paragraph (a) of this subsection, the transfer of that produce, fish or other aquatic animals and plants from the activity referred to in paragraph (a) of this subsection, shall for the purposes of this Decree, be deemed to be a supply of goods and services as if these activities referred to in paragraph (a) and (b) of this subsection were carried on by separate persons.

Sub-sections (12) and (13) renumbered (11) - (12)

(11) The disposition of a taxable activity as a going concern shall be deemed to be a supply of goods made in the course or furtherance of the taxable activity.

(12) For the purposes of this Act, where a supply is charged with tax in part under subsection (1) and in part under section 15(2), each such part shall be deemed to be a separate supply.

(13) Notwithstanding section 18 and 19 of this Act, any deposit held as security for the performance of an obligation is deemed to be consideration for the supply when:

(a) the deposit is forfeited due to non-performance of the obligation; or

(b) the deposit is applied as consideration for the supply, and the tax charged on that supply shall be attributable to the tax period in which the deposit is forfeited or applied.

Previously read under Act No. 66 of 2010 “and including items falling under tariff heading of 03.02 (fish, fresh or chilled excluding fish fillets and other fish meat of 03.04), 03.03 (fish frozen excluding fish fillets and other fish meat of 03.04) as are listed in Part III of Schedule 2 of the Customs Tariff Act 1986.

(5) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, no tax shall be levied under this Part in respect of importation of goods which are subject to the Tax Free Zones Act 1991 or the duty suspension scheme.
(5A) No tax shall be levied under this Part for the importation of any aircraft used for commercial air transport operation, provided however that prior written approval by the Minister shall be obtained for the exemption.

Amended Decree 44 of 2012, s2, commencement 1 September 2011.

(5B) For the purpose of subsection (5A), “commercial air transport operation” is defined in the Air Navigation Regulations 1981.

Amended Decree 44 of 2012, s2, commencement 1 September 2011.

History

Renumbered as (6) by Act 11 of 200, s2, commencement 1 July 2002.

(6) For the purposes of this section the term “goods” has the same meaning as defined in the Customs Act 1986.
PART 4 - IMPOSITION OF TAX ON SUPPLY

Section 15  Imposition of tax on supply

S 15 is amended by substituting "twelve and a half" for "ten" by Act No 34 of 2002, effective 1 January, 2003

(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the tax shall be charged in accordance with the provisions of this Act at the rate of 9% on the supply (but not including an exempt supply) in Fiji of goods and services on or after 1 July 1992, by a registered person in the course or furtherance of a taxable activity carried on by that person, by reference to the value of that supply.

Amended Act 34 of 2002, s2, commencement 1 January 2003; Decree 66 of 2010, s3, 1 January 2011; Act 22 of 2015, s3, commencement 1 January 2016

History
1. Act No.66 of 2010 deleted “twelve and a half percent” and substituted “fifteen percent”. Effective from 1st January 2011.

(2) Where, but for this subsection, a supply of goods and services would be charged with tax under subsection (1) of this section, any such supply shall be charged at the rate of 0% where that supply is a zero-rated supply.

Section 16  Place of supply

(1) For the purposes of section 15, the following provisions of this section shall apply for determining, for the purposes of the charge of tax, whether goods and services are supplied in Fiji.

(2) In relation to a supply of goods which does not involve their removal from or to Fiji, those goods shall be deemed to be supplied in Fiji if those goods are in Fiji, and otherwise shall be deemed to be supplied outside Fiji.

(3) In relation to a supply of goods which involves their removal -
(a) from Fiji, those goods shall be deemed to be supplied in Fiji;
(b) to Fiji, those goods shall be deemed to be supplied outside Fiji.

(4) Subject to this Section, a supply of services shall be deemed to be -
(a) in Fiji if the supplier belongs in Fiji; or
(b) in another country, if that supplier belongs in that other country.

Section 17 Place where supplier or recipient of services belongs

(1) Subsection (2) shall apply for determining, in relation to any supply of services, whether the supplier belongs in one country or another and subsections (3) and (4) shall apply for determining, in relation to a supply of services, whether the recipient belongs in one country or another.

(2) The supplier of services shall be deemed to belong in a country if the supplier -
(a) has there a taxable activity establishment or some other fixed establishment and no such establishment elsewhere; or
(b) has no such establishment there or elsewhere but the supplier’s usual place of residence is there; or
(c) has such establishment both in that country and elsewhere and the establishment of the supplier which is most directly concerned with the supply is there.

S 17 sub-section (3) amended by adding a proviso.

(3) If the supply of services is made to an individual and received by that person otherwise than for the purposes of any taxable activity carried on by that person, that person shall be deemed to belong in whatever country that person has his usual place of residence, provided that this subsection shall not apply to any individual who is present in Fiji at the time the services are supplied, other than when the goods in respect of which the supply is being made are situated outside Fiji.

(4) Where subsection (3) does not apply, the person to whom the supply of services is made shall be deemed as belonging in a country if -
(a) either of the conditions mentioned in subsection (2) (a) and (b) is satisfied; or
(b) that person has such establishments as are mentioned in subsection (2) both in that country and elsewhere and the establishment of that person at which, or for the purposes of which, the services are most directly used or to be used in that country.

(5) For the purposes of this section -

(a) a person carrying on a taxable activity through a branch or agency in any country shall be deemed to have a taxable activity establishment there; and

(b) the expression “usual place of residence”, in relation to a body corporate, means the place where it is legally constituted.

Section 18 Time of supply

(1) Subject to this Act, a supply of goods and services shall be deemed to take place at the time -

(a) a tax invoice is issued by the supplier or the recipient; or

(b) any payment is received by the supplier; or

(c) the delivery of the goods and services takes place, - whichever is the earlier.

(2) Notwithstanding anything in subsection (1), a supply of goods and services shall be deemed to take place -

(a) where the supply is for a consideration in money received by the supplier by means of any machine, meter, or other device operated by a coin or token, at the time any such coin or token is taken from that machine, meter, or other device by or on behalf of the supplier:

(b) where that supply is a supply to which of section 3 (9) refers, at the time at which the property in the goods is transferred to the buyer, provided that in any case in which a supply of services is deemed to take place pursuant to the proviso to, of section 3 (9), that supply of services shall be deemed to take place at the time that the layby sale is cancelled pursuant to Part 4 of the Sale of Goods Act 1979;

(c) where goods are supplied under an agreement for hire, or services are supplied under any agreement or enactment which provides for periodic payments, those goods or services shall be deemed to be successively supplied for successive parts of the period of the agreement or enactment, and each of the successive supplies shall be deemed to take place when a payment becomes due or is received, whichever is the earlier;
(d) where and to the extent that goods and services are supplied progressively or periodically pursuant to any agreement or enactment which provides for the consideration for that supply to be paid in installments or periodically and in relation to the progressive or periodic supply of those goods and services those goods and services shall be deemed to be successively supplied, and each such successive supply shall be deemed to take place whenever any payment in respect of that supply becomes due, is received, or a tax invoice relating only to that payment is issued, whichever is the earlier;

[Amended by Decree 28/92, s11 (a), (b)]

(e) where and to the extent that goods and services supplied directly in the construction, major reconstruction, manufacture or extension of a building or engineering work are supplied pursuant to any agreement or enactment which provides for the consideration for that supply to become due and payable in installments or periodically in relation to the progressive nature of that construction, manufacture or extension, those goods and services shall be deemed to be successively supplied, and each successive supply shall be deemed to take place whenever any payment in respect of that supply becomes due, is received or any tax invoice relating to that payment is issued, whichever is the earlier;

[Amended by Decree 28/92, s11 (e)]

(f) where goods are supplied under an agreement, other than an agreement for hire, and the goods or part of them are appropriated under that agreement by the recipient in circumstances where the whole of the consideration is not determined at the time those goods are appropriated, that supply shall be deemed to take place when and to the extent that any payment under the agreement is due or is received or a tax invoice relating to the supply is issued by the supplier or the recipient, whichever is the earlier;

(g) the supply of goods and services which is deemed to be made by a registered person pursuant to section 3 (10) shall be deemed to take place at the time that that registered person is liable to deduct income tax from the value of the employee benefit in terms of the Income Tax Act 2015.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2), the term “agreement for hire” means an agreement for the bailment of goods for hire and includes a lease of goods and a rental agreement but...
excludes an agreement under which the property in goods passes to the bailee or which expressly contemplates that the property in the goods will pass to the bailee.

Section 19 Value of supply of goods and services

(1) For the purposes of this Act the following provisions of this section shall apply for determining the value of supply of goods and services.

(2) Subject to this section and section 20, the value of a supply of goods and services shall be such amount as, with the addition of the tax charged, is equal to the aggregate of, -

(a) to the extent that the consideration for the supply is consideration in money, the amount of the money;

(b) to the extent that the consideration for the supply is not consideration in money, the open market value of that consideration.

(3) Subject to subsections (4) and (6) where -

(a) a supply is made by a person for no consideration or for a consideration in money that is less than the open market value of that supply; and

(b) the supplier and recipient are not independent of each other, - the consideration in money for the supply shall be deemed to be the open market value of that supply.

(4) Subsection (3) shall not apply to any supply made by a registered person where the recipient acquired that supply wholly for the purposes of making taxable supplies and is entitled under section 39 (2) to make a deduction in respect of that supply.

History

S 19 sub-section (5) amended by addition of definition of “cash price” Previously no such definition.

(5) Notwithstanding anything in subsection (2), where any supply of goods and services is made pursuant to -

(a) a hire purchase agreement (being a conditional sale agreement whereby the property in the goods will pass to the bailee); or

(b) a financial lease (being an agreement to lease whereby the lessee is expressly required or has the option to purchase the goods subject to the lease at a guarantee residual value or nil), the consideration in money for the supply shall be deemed to be the cash price of those goods and services.

“Cash price” in relation to goods and services supplied means:

(a) the lowest price at which a person could have purchased those goods and services from the supplier thereof on the basis of payment in full at the time of supply; or
(b) if there is no such price, the open market value of those goods and services at the time of supply.

Amended Decree 28 of 1992, s11, commencement 1 July 1992

(6) Where goods and services are deemed to be supplied by a person under section 3 (2) and (4), the consideration in money for that supply shall deemed to be the lesser of:
(a) the cost of those goods and services to the supplier, including any tax charged in respect of the supply of those goods and services to that supplier;
(b) the open market value of that supply.

(7) Notwithstanding anything in this section, where goods and services are, or are deemed to be supplied to the State by any public authority pursuant to section 3 (5), the consideration in money for any such supply shall be an amount equal to any amount from time to time paid by the State to or on behalf of that public authority for that supply.

(8) Notwithstanding anything in this section, where goods and services are, or deemed to be supplied to any person by any local authority pursuant to Section 3 (7), the consideration in money for any such supply shall be an amount equal to any amount from time to time paid or payable by or on behalf of that person for that supply.

(9) Where a supply of services is deemed to be made under the proviso to section 3 (9), the consideration in money for that supply shall be deemed to be an amount equal to the amount referred to in paragraph (b) of that proviso as being retained or recoverable.

(10) Where a right to receive goods and services for a monetary value stated on any token, stamp (not being a postage stamp) or voucher is granted for a consideration in money, that supply shall be disregarded for the purposes of this Act, except to the extent (if any) that consideration exceeds that monetary value.
(11) Where a registered person supplies goods and services by way of a gift or as a trade sample for no consideration in the course or furtherance of taxable activity, the consideration in money for that supply shall be deemed to be the open market value of that supply, provided that this provision shall not apply where –

(a) the good or service gifted did not cost the supplier more than ten dollars and does not form part of a series or succession of gifts made to the same recipient from time to time;

(b) the good or service is a trade sample supplied to an actual or potential customer of the taxable activity, in a form not ordinarily available for supply to the public.

(12) Where goods and services are deemed to be supplied by a registered person under section 3 (10), the consideration in money for the supply shall be deemed to be an amount equal to the value of the employee benefit determined by the Chief Executive Officer for income tax purposes.

(13) Where a taxable supply is not the only matter to which a consideration relates, the supply shall be deemed to be for such part of the consideration as is properly attributable to it.

(14) Subject to the foregoing provisions of this Section where any supply is made for no consideration, the value of that supply shall be nil.

Section 20  Second-hand goods

History

S 20 amended by adding a proviso after sub-section (1). Previously no such proviso. [Amendment No 1 of 1992. Act No 28, effective 1 July 1992]

(1) Where a registered person, who is a dealer in second-hand goods, has purchased second-hand goods of whatever kind from a non-registered person, the consideration in money for the supply of those goods by that registered person shall be an amount equal to the gross margin by allowing the purchase price as a deduction from the sale price of those goods at the time of the sale of those goods, Provided that the Chief Executive Officer may determine the gross margin to be applied to specified goods or classes of goods; being goods that are supplied in the normal course of that person’s taxable activity for a consideration less than $500.
Amended Decree 28 of 1992, s13, commencement 1 July 1992

(2) Where the supplier and recipient are not independent of each other, the purchase price for the second-hand goods shall, for the purpose of subsection (1), be deemed to be the lesser of the purchase price or the open market value of that supply of second-hand goods.

(3) The registered person, shall in respect of second-hand goods purchased from a non-registered person maintain sufficient records to enable the following particulars to be ascertained:
   (a) the name and address of the supplier;
   (b) the date upon which the secondhand goods were supplied;
   (c) a description of the goods supplied;
   (d) the quantity or volume of the goods supplied; and
   (e) the consideration for the supply.

History

S 20 amended by adding new sub-sections (4) and (5)

[Amendment No 1 of 1992. Act No 28, effective 1 July 1992]

(4) Subsections (1) and (3) shall apply only to dealers in “second hand goods”.

Amended Decree 28 of 1992, s13, commencement 1 July 1992

(5) For the purposes of this section -
   (a) the term “second hand goods” shall not include:
      (i) land;
      (ii) improvements to any land, including buildings constructed thereon;
      (iii) produce.
   (b) the term “dealer in second hand goods” shall include a person continuously or regularly making purchase and sale of second hand goods, without making significant alterations to their structure or content and shall not include bottle collectors.

Amended Decree 28 of 1992, s13, commencement 1 July 1992

Section 21 Reverse charge on supplies received from abroad

(1) For the purposes of this section “relevant service” means services of any of the descriptions specified in paragraph (14) of Schedule 2, not being services within any of the descriptions specified in paragraph (1) of the Schedule 1.
(2) Subject to subsection (3), where relevant services are -

(a) supplied by a person who belongs in a country other than Fiji; and
(b) received by a person (hereafter in this subsection referred to as a recipient) who belongs in Fiji for the purposes of any taxable activity carried on by that person;

then all the consequences shall follow under this Act (and particularly so much as charges tax on supply and entitles a registered person to a deduction for input tax) as if the recipient had supplied the services in Fiji in the course or furtherance of that recipient’s taxable activity.

(3) The provisions of this Act relating to the deduction of input tax shall apply in respect of supplies, which are treated as made by a registered person under subsection (2), although those supplies themselves shall not be treated as being taxable supplies made by that person for the purposes of determining the input tax deductible under section 39 (2).

(4) For the purposes of this Act, where subsection (2), treats a supply of relevant services as being made by a person in the course or furtherance of that person’s taxable activity –

(a) the value of that supply shall be for whatever consideration was paid or payable for the relevant services; and

(b) the supply shall take place when the relevant services are paid for, or if the consideration is not in money, the last day of the taxable period in which the services are performed.

Amended Decree 28 of 1992, s14, commencement 1 July 1992

(5) Where a person carried on a taxable activity through an establishment of the person in Fiji and through another establishment outside Fiji, any supply of relevant services by the establishment outside Fiji to the establishment in Fiji shall be treated as a supply to which subsection (2) applies, as if that supply between the 2 establishments were between 2 separate persons who are independent of each other.

(6) Notwithstanding anything in subsection 4(a), where subsection (5) applies, the value of the supply shall be deemed to be the open market value of the relevant services.
PART 5 – REGISTRATION

Section 22 Persons making taxable supplies to be registered

History

“thirty” substituted for “twenty” in S 22(a) (i) by Act No 29 of 1995, effective 1 January 1996

“fifty substituted for “thirty” in s22(1)(a)(i) by Act No. 6 of 2010, effective 1 January 2010

(1) Subject to this Act, every person (other than a produce supplier) who, on or after the 1 July 1992, carries on any taxable activity and is not registered, becomes liable to be registered -

(a) in the case of any person who solely supplies goods –

(i) at the end of any month where the total value of supplies (not being exempt supplies) made in Fiji in that month and the 11 months immediately preceding that month in the course of carrying on all taxable activities has exceeded $100,000 in gross turnover or such other amount as the Minister may from time to time, by Legal Notice declare, provided that a person does not become liable to be registered by virtue of this paragraph where the Chief Executive Officer is satisfied that the value of all those supplies in the 12 month period beginning on the day after the last day of the period referred to in the said paragraph will not exceed that amount;

(ii) at the commencement of any month where there are reasonable grounds for believing that the total value of the supplies (not being exempt supplies) to be made in Fiji in that month and the 11 months immediately following that month will exceed the amount specified in subparagraph (i);

(b) in the case of any other person –

(i) at the end of any month where the total value of supplies (not being exempt supplies) made in Fiji in that month and the 11 months immediately preceding that month in the course of carrying on all taxable

activities has exceeded $100,000 in gross turnover or such other amount as the Minister may from time to time, by Legal Notice declare, provided that a person does not become liable to be registered by virtue of this paragraph where the Chief Executive Officer is satisfied that the value of all those supplies in the 12 month period beginning on the day after the last day of the period referred to in the said paragraph will not exceed that amount:

(ii) at the commencement of any month where there are reasonable grounds for believing that the total value of the supplies (not being exempt supplies) to be made in Fiji in that month and the 11 months immediately following that month will exceed the amount specified in subparagraph (i).

Amended Act 29 of 1995, s3, commencement 1 January 1996; Decree 6 of 2010, s3, commencement 1 January 2010; Decree 10 of 2012, s2, commencement 1 January 2012.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the total value of a registered person’s taxable supplies shall be deemed not to have exceeded any amount specified in or under that subsection where that total value exceeds any such amount solely as a consequence of-

(a) any cessation of, or any substantial and permanent reduction in the size or scale of, any taxable activity carried on by that person; or

(b) the replacement of any plant or other capital asset used in any taxable activity carried on by that person.

(3) Every person who, by virtue of subsection (1), becomes liable to be registered shall apply to the Chief Executive Officer on the prescribed registration form, as may be approved by the Chief Executive Officer, within 21 days of becoming so liable.

(4) Notwithstanding subsections (1) and (3), every person who satisfies the Chief Executive Officer that on or after the 1 July 1992 -

(a) that person is carrying on a taxable activity that involves the making of other than exempt supplies; or

(b) that person intends to carry on any taxable activity, which will involve the making of other than exempt supplies, from a specific date, may apply to the Chief Executive Officer on the prescribed registration form for registration.

4A Notwithstanding subsection (1), a person engaged in the supply of residential accommodation which is expected to exceed a gross annual turnover of $100,000, may, in the prescribed form, make an application to the Chief Executive Officer to be registered in accordance with subsection (1).
4B Upon receipt of an application under subsection (4A), the Chief Executive Officer may approve the application for registration in accordance with subsection (5) where it appears to the Chief Executive Officer that there are reasonable grounds to believe that the total value of the supply of residential accommodation will exceed a gross turnover of $100,000 within 12 months following the registration.

(5) Where any person -
(a) applies to be registered pursuant to subsection (3) or (4), and the Chief Executive Officer is satisfied that that person is eligible to be registered under this Act, that person shall be a registered person for the purposes of this Act with effect from such date as the Chief Executive Officer may determine; or
(b) has not made application for registration pursuant to subsection (3) of this Section, and the Chief Executive Officer is satisfied that that person is liable to be registered under this Act, that person shall be a registered person for the purposes of this Act with effect from the date on which that person first became liable to be registered under this Act,

Provided that the Chief Executive Officer may, having regard to the circumstances of the case, determine that person to be a registered person from such later date as the Chief Executive Officer considers equitable.

(6) The provisions of this Act relating to the determination of the value of any supply of goods and services shall apply for the purposes of this Section, with the modification that no regard shall be made to any tax charged in respect of any such supply.

(7) An application for registration under this Act purporting to be made by or on behalf of any person shall for all purposes be deemed to have been made by that person or by that person’s authority, as the case may be, unless the contrary is proved.
History

1. Transitional provision inserted by Act No. 6 of 2010, effective 1 January 2010
2. Repealed under Act No. 10 of 2012. Effective from 1st January 2012

“Transitional Provision of the Act

Every registered person below the turnover threshold of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000.00) must submit their final VAT returns for the year 2009, by the 30th of June 2010.”

Section 23 Cancellation of registration

(1) Subject to this Act, every registered person who carries on any taxable activity shall cease to be liable to be registered where at any time, if that person has been registered for the whole of the 12 months then ending, the Chief Executive Officer is satisfied that the value of that person’s taxable supplies in the period of 12 months then beginning will not be more than the amounts specified in section 22(1) (a) or (b) for the purposes of that said section provided that where a registered person is a produce supplier he may apply for cancellation of registration at any time after having been registered for a period of twelve months.

Amended Decree 28 of 1992, s15, commencement 1 July 1992

(2) Every person who, by virtue of subsection (1), ceases to be liable to be registered may request the Chief Executive Officer in writing to cancel that registration, and if the Chief Executive Officer is at any time satisfied, as mentioned in subsection (1), the Chief Executive Officer shall cancel that person’s registration with effect from the last day of the taxable period during which the Chief Executive Officer was so satisfied, or from such other date as may be determined by the Chief Executive Officer, and shall notify that person of the date on which the cancellation of registration takes effect.

(3) Every registered person who ceases to carry on all taxable activities that involve the making of taxable supplies shall notify the Chief Executive Officer of that fact within seven days of the date of cessation and the Chief Executive Officer shall cancel the registration of any such person with effect from the last day of the taxable period during which all such taxable activities ceased, or such other date as may be determined by the Chief Executive Officer, provided that the Chief Executive Officer shall not at any time cancel the registration of any such registered person if there are reasonable grounds for believing that the registered person will carry on any taxable activity that will involve the making of taxable supplies at any time within 12 months from that date of cessation.

(4) Any notification by a registered person pursuant to subsection (3) shall be made in writing to the Chief Executive Officer and shall state the date upon which that person ceased to carry on all such taxable activities and whether or not that person intends to carry on any such taxable activity within 12 months from that date.

(5) Where the Chief Executive Officer is satisfied that a registered person is not carrying on any taxable activities that involve the making of taxable supplies the Chief Executive Officer may cancel that person’s registration with effect from the last day of the taxable period during which the Chief Executive Officer was so satisfied, or from such other date as may be determined by the Chief Executive Officer, and shall notify that person of the date on which the cancellation of registration takes effect.

(6) Any date determined by the Chief Executive Officer for the cancellation of registration under subsection (5) may be retrospective to a date not earlier than -
(a) the last day of the taxable period during which all such taxable activities carried on by that person ceased; or
(b) the date on which the person was registered under this Act, if the Chief Executive Officer is satisfied that the person did not, from that date, carry on any taxable activity involving the making of taxable supplies.

History

S 23 amended by adding new sub-sections (7) and (8). [Amendment No 1 of 1993, effective 1 January 1993]

(7) Notwithstanding anything in subsection (1) where a registered person is -
(a) a produce supplier; or
(b) a non-profit body which in the opinion of the Chief Executive Officer is not carrying on a taxable activity in competition with another registered person; or
(c) any other person who has registered in error,

he may apply for cancellation of registration at any time.
(8) Notwithstanding anything in section 3(4), where a person ceases to be registered under subsection (7), any input tax credit which has not been claimed by the registered person in respect of any goods or services then forming part of the assets of any taxable activity carried on by that registered person shall not be deemed to be in the course of that taxable activity for the purposes of ceasing to be a registered person.

Amended Act 1 of 1993, s5, commencement 1 January 1993

(9) The Chief Executive Officer may cancel a person’s registration under subsection (5) if the Chief Executive Officer is satisfied that the total value of the taxable supply of residential accommodation by the registered person has not exceeded a gross turnover of $100,000 in the preceding 12 months.

Amended Act 4 of 2017, s4, commencement 1 August 2016

(10) Prior to cancellation under subsection (9), a registered person whose total value of taxable supply of residential accommodation has not exceeded a gross turnover of $100,000 in the preceding 12 months may write to the Chief Executive Officer requesting for an additional period of up to 24 months to meet the $100,000 gross turnover threshold.

Amended Act 4 of 2017, s4, commencement 1 August 2016

(11) Upon receipt of a written request made under subsection (10), the Chief Executive Officer may, at his or her discretion, extend the turnover period requirement in subsection (1).

Amended Act 4 of 2017, s4, commencement 1 August 2016

(12) Where a person’s registration is cancelled in accordance with subsection (9), any input tax credit or VAT refund which had been claimed by the person for any expense including the construction of the residential accommodation from the date of registration to the date of the cancellation of registration, may be recovered by the Chief Executive Officer and section 3(4) of the Act shall apply.

Amended Act 4 of 2017, s4, commencement 1 August 2016

Section 24 Registered person to notify of change of status
24. Subject to this Act, every registered person shall within 21 days notify the Chief Executive Officer in writing of -

(a) any changes in the name, address, constitution or nature of the principal taxable activity or activities of that registered person;
(b) any change of address from which, or the name in which, any taxable activity is carried on by that registered person;
(c) any change whereby that registered person ceases to satisfy the conditions of Section 32 (3);
(d) any change whereby that registered person ceases to satisfy the conditions of Section 36 (2) provided that this section shall not apply to the notification of any changes in the ownership of a company.

Section 25
Liabilities not affected by ceasing to be registered person

25. The obligations and liabilities under this Act of any person in respect of anything done, or omitted to be done, by that person while that person is a registered person shall not be affected by the fact that that person ceases to be a registered person, or by the fact that, being a registered person, the Chief Executive Officer cancels that person’s registration.
PART 6 - SPECIAL CASES

Section 26   Unincorporated bodies

(1) For the purpose of this section -
    “body” means an unincorporated body of persons; and includes

    (a) a partnership;
    (b) a joint venture;
    (c) the trustees of a trust;

    “members” means a partner, a joint venturer, a trustee or a member of any body; and

    “partnership” has the same meaning as in the Partnership Act 1910

History

S 26 sub-section (2) (c) amended by adding “and services” before the words “by, any” by Amendment No 1 of 1992. Act No 28, effective 1 July 1992]

(2) Where a body that carries on any taxable activity is registered pursuant to this Act,

    (a) the members of that body shall not themselves be registered or liable to be registered under this Act in relation to the carrying on of that taxable activity; and

    (b) any supply of goods and services made in the course of carrying on that taxable activity shall be deemed for the purposes of this Act to be supplied by that body, and shall be deemed not to be made by any member of that body; and

    (c) any supply of goods and services to, or acquisition of goods and services by, any member of that body acting in the capacity as a member of that body and in the course of carrying on that taxable activity, not being a supply to which paragraph (b) of this subsection applies, shall be deemed for the purposes of this Act to be supplied to or acquired by that body, and shall be deemed not to be supplied to or acquired by that member; and

    (d) that registration shall be in the name of the body, or where that body is the trustees of a trust, in the name of the trust; and
(e) subject to subsection (3), any change of members of that body shall have no effect for the purposes of this Act.

Amended Decree 28 of 1992, s16, commencement 1 July 1992

(3) Notwithstanding anything in this Section, every member is liable jointly and severally with any other members for all tax payable by the body while that member remains a member of that body, and, where that member is an individual, after that member’s death, that member’s estate shall be severally liable in due course of administration for such tax payable as far as it remains unpaid, provided that where any such body is a partnership, joint venture, or the trustees of a trust, a member shall not cease to be a member for the purposes of this Section until the date on which any change of membership of that body is notified in writing to the Chief Executive Officer.

(4) For the purpose of this Act, any notice served in accordance with this Act which is addressed to a body by the name in which it is registered pursuant to this Act, shall be deemed to be served on that body and on all members of that body.

(5) Subject to subsection (6), where anything is required to be done pursuant to this Act by or on behalf of any body, it shall be the joint and several liability of all the members to do any such thing, provided that any such thing done by one member shall be sufficient compliance with any such requirement.

(6) Notwithstanding anything in this section, but subject to subsection (3), where anything is required to be done pursuant to this Act by or on behalf of any body, not being a partnership, joint venture, or trustees of a trust, the affairs of which are managed by its members or a committee or committees of its members, it shall be the joint and several responsibility of -

(a) every member holding office as president, chairperson, treasurer, secretary or any similar office; or

(b) in default of any such member, every member holding office as a member of a committee, provided that if it is done by any official or committee member, referred to in paragraph (a) or (b), that shall be sufficient compliance with any such requirement.

Section 27  Branch or division

History

S 27 sub-section (1) repealed and replaced by existing sub-section.

Previously read -

“(1) Where a taxable activity is carried on by any registered person in branches or divisions and those branches and divisions are a produce supplier, that registered person may apply in writing to the Chief Executive Officer for any such branch or division to be treated as a separate person for the purpose of this Act”

(1) Where a taxable activity is carried on by any registered person in branches or divisions and any branch or division solely supplies produce that registered person may apply in writing to the Chief Executive Officer for that branch or division to be treated as a separate person for the purposes of this Act.

Amended Decree 28 of 1992, s17, commencement 1 July 1992

(2) The Chief Executive Officer may, upon application made pursuant to subsection (1) treat any branch or division as a separate person if each branch or division maintains an independent system of accounting, solely supplies produce in a raw and unprocessed state and can be separately identified by reference to being a produce supplier or the location of the branch or division and where any such branch or division is so separately treated, any taxable activity carried on by that branch or division shall, to that extent, be deemed not to be carried on by the registered person first mentioned in subsection (1).

Section 27A  Branches or divisions containing residential accommodation

(1) Where a registered person carries on a taxable activity in branches or divisions, and a branch or division of that taxable activity is the supply of residential accommodation in which the gross turnover does not exceed $100,000, that registered person may apply a writing to the Chief Executive Officer for that branch or division to be treated as a separate entity for the purpose of this Act.

Amended Act 4 of 2017, s5, commencement 1 August 2016

(2) The Chief Executive Officer may upon receiving an application made pursuant to subsection (1), treat that branch or division separately to maintain an independent system supplier of accounting, and any taxable activity carried on by the registered person who is a supplier of residential accommodation, shall not be included as part of other divisions or branches which are below the taxable threshold under section 22.
Section 28  Personal representative, liquidator, receiver, etc

(1) Where a registered person dies, or goes into liquidation or receivership, or becomes bankrupt or incapacitated, the Chief Executive Officer shall, from the date on which that person died, or went into liquidation or receivership, or became bankrupt or incapacitated, until such time as some other person is registered in respect of the taxable supplies made or intended to be made by that registered person in the course or furtherance of that person’s taxable activity or until such time as the incapacity ceases, as the case may be, deem any person carrying on that taxable activity to be a registered person.

(2) Where a mortgagee is in possession of any land or other property previously mortgaged by the mortgagor, being a registered person, the Chief Executive Officer shall, from the date on which the mortgagee took possession of that land or other property, until such time as the mortgagee ceases to be in possession of that land or other property, deem the mortgagee, in any case where and to the extent that the mortgagee carries on any taxable activity of the mortgagor, to be a registered person.

(3) Any person carrying on such taxable activity as aforesaid shall, within 21 days of commencing to do so, inform the Chief Executive Officer in writing of that fact and of the date of the death or of the liquidation or receivership or bankruptcy or mortgagee taking possession of any land or other property previously mortgaged by the mortgagor, or of the nature of the incapacity and the date on which it began.

Section 29  Liability of agent of non-resident principal for returns and tax

History

S 29(1) (b) amended by deleting the word “place” and replacing with “establishment”.

[Amendment No 1 of 1992. Act No 28, effective 1 July 1992]

(1) For the purposes of this section, the term “non-resident” means -
(a) any person, not being a company, who is for the time being out of Fiji;
(b) any company, not being a company incorporated in Fiji, unless it has a fixed or permanent establishment in Fiji relating to the carrying on of any taxable activity in Fiji in its own name;
(c) any company, not being a company incorporated in Fiji, which is declared by the Chief Executive Officer to be a non-resident for the purposes of this Act by notice given to that company or to its agent or attorney in Fiji, so long as that declaration remains unrevoked.

Amended Decree 28 of 1992, s18, commencement 1 July 1992

(2) Every person who in Fiji carries on any taxable activity for and on behalf of a principal who is a non-resident shall, for the purposes of this Act, be the agent of that principal in respect of that taxable activity so carried on in Fiji by means of that agent, and the agent shall make returns and be liable for the tax charged or levied under this Act.

History

S 29 sub-section (3) amended by inserting the words “or an agent of a non-resident” after the word “non-resident” Amended Act No 16 of 1995, s8, commencement 1 January 1995

(3) The Chief Executive Officer shall have the power to declare any person a non-resident or an agent of a non-resident for the purpose of this Section.

Section 30 Agents and Auctioneers

History

S 30 amended by adding new sub-section (2A). [Amended Act No 16 of 1995, effective 1 January 1995]

(1) Subject to this Section, where an agent makes a supply of goods and services for and on behalf of any other person who is the principal of that agent, that supply shall be deemed to be made by that principal and not by that agent.

(2) Subject to this Section, where any registered person makes a taxable supply of goods and services to an agent who is acting on behalf of another person who is the principal for the purposes of that supply, that supply shall be deemed to be made to that principal and not to that agent.

(2A) Where goods or services are supplied through an agent who acts in his own name the Chief Executive Officer may, if he or she thinks fit, treat the supply both as a supply to the agent and as a supply by the agent.

Amended Act 16 of 1995, s9 commencement 1 January 1995
(3) For the purposes of subsection (4), the expression “auctioneer” means a registered person carrying on a taxable activity which comprises or includes the supply by auction of goods as an auctioneer or agent for or on behalf of another person (hereafter in this Section referred to as a principal)

(4) Notwithstanding anything in the foregoing provisions of this section, where the principal and the auctioneer agree to have a supply by auction of any goods, not being a taxable supply, treated as if that supply had been made by that auctioneer and not by that principal, that supply shall be charged with tax as if it were made by that auctioneer in the course or furtherance of that auctioneer’s taxable activity and that auctioneer may -
(a) recover the amount of tax charged on that supply from that principal as a debt together with the costs of recovery in any Court of competent jurisdiction; or
(b) retain or deduct the same out of any money in that auctioneer’s hands belonging or payable to that principal.

(5) Notwithstanding anything in subsection (2), where any registered person makes a taxable supply (not being a supply to which section 15 (2) applies) of goods and services to an agent, being a registered person, who is acting for or on behalf of another person who is the principal for the purposes of that supply, and -

(a) that principal is not resident in Fiji and is not a registered person; and
(b) that supply is directly in connection with either the exportation, or the arranging thereof, of goods from Fiji to any country or place outside Fiji, or the importation, or the arranging thereof, of goods to Fiji from any country or place outside Fiji, including, in either case, the transportation of those goods within Fiji as part of that exportation or, as the case may be importation, this Act shall, where that agent and that principal agree, have effect as if that supply were made to that agent and not to that principal.

Section 31 Liability of new companies for tax payable by former companies with substantially the same shareholders or under the same control

(1) For the purpose of this section,

“company” means any company incorporated in Fiji;

“new company” means a company carrying on a taxable activity in Fiji and consisting substantially of the same shareholders as an original company or being under the control of the same persons as an original company;
“nominee”, in relation to any person means any other person who may be required to exercise his or her voting power in relation to any company in accordance with the direction of that person, or who hold shares or debentures directly, or indirectly on behalf of that person; and includes any relative of that person;

Amended Decree 28 of 1992, s19, commencement 1 July 1992

“original company” means a company which having at any time carried on a taxable activity in Fiji, after the commencement of this Act, has ceased to carry on a taxable activity in Fiji, and includes any such company that has been wound up.

“person” includes a company and a local or public authority.

(2) Where an original company has been wound up, its shareholders and directors, as on the commencement of its winding up, shall respectively be deemed to be the shareholders and the persons having the control of the company for the purpose of this section.

(3) Where an original company was, when it ceased to carry on a taxable activity in Fiji, liable under this Act for any tax or was liable to be assessed for any such tax, and that tax has not been paid, the new company shall, for the purpose of this Act, be deemed to be the agent of the original company and shall be liable for all tax payable by the original company.

(4) (a) For the purpose of this section a company shall be deemed to be under the control of the persons -

(i) by whom more than 50% of the shares, or more than 50% of the nominal capital, or more than 50% of the paid up capital, or more than 50% of the voting power is held; or

(ii) who have by any other means whatsoever control of the company; or

(iii) who, by reason of the shareholding at the end of any income year, would be entitled to more than 50% of the profits for that year if those profits were distributed by way of dividend at the end of that year.

(b) Where a nominee of any person holds any shares, nominal capital, paid-up capital, or voting power in a company, or has by any other means whatsoever any power of control in a company, or is entitled to a share of profits distributed by a company, then for the purposes of this Section those shares or that capital or that voting power or that power of control or that title profits, as the case may be, shall be deemed to be held by that person, and in every such case that person and his or her nominee or that person and all his or her nominees shall be deemed to be one person.

(c) For the purpose of this section 2 companies shall be deemed to consist substantially of the same shareholders if not less than 50% of the paid-up capital of each of them is held by shareholders in the other or if not less than 50% in nominal value of the allotted shares in each of them is held by shareholders in the other. Shares in one company held by another company shall for this purpose be deemed to be held by the shareholders in the last mentioned company.

Inserted by Promulgation No. 46 of 2007 WEF 1st January 2008

Section 31A Liability for VAT Payable by Companies left with insufficient funds

(1) This section applies where-

(a) any arrangement has been entered into in relation to a company;

(b) an effect of that arrangement is that the company is unable to satisfy under this Act a liability for VAT of the company, whether the VAT liability exists at the time of entry into the arrangement or arises subsequently; and

(c) it can reasonably be concluded that-

(i) a director of the company at the time of entry into the arrangement who had made all reasonable inquiries into the affairs of the company would have anticipated at that time that the VAT liability would be, or would be likely to be, required to be satisfied by the company under this Act; and

(ii) a purpose of the arrangement was to have the effect specified in paragraph (b).

(2) Where an arrangement to which this section applies has been entered into, all persons who were directors of the company at the time the arrangement was entered into are, subject to subsection (4), jointly and severally liable for the VAT liability, as agent of the company.

(3) Where an arrangement to which this section applies has been entered into any person who was a controlling shareholder at the time the arrangement was entered into, being a person controlling the company in any way whatsoever, is liable as agent of the company for its unsatisfied VAT liability.
(4) A director is not liable under this section for any Vat liability of the company where the Chief Executive Officer is satisfied that the director derived no benefit from the arrangement and either:

(a) the director has, at the first reasonable opportunity after becoming aware of the arrangement, or of those aspects of the arrangement that render it subject to this section -

(i) formally recorded with the company the director’s dissent in relation to the arrangement; and

(ii) notified the Chief Executive Officer in writing of the arrangement and of director’s dissent from that arrangement; or

(b) the director satisfies the Chief Executive Officer that-

(i) the director was not at the material time or times involved in the executive management of the company; and

(ii) the director had no knowledge of the arrangement, or of those aspects of the arrangement that render it subject to the application of this section.

Section 31AA  Liability of Directors of Private Companies

A director of a private company is answerable for anything done by that company under this Act, and in case of default of the company, is liable to the same penalties and to account for the VAT debts of that company, provided that a director is not liable under this section for any tax liability of the company where the Chief Executive Officer is satisfied that the director was not at the material time or times involved in the executive management of the company.

Section 31B  Directors of a company may be personally sued

Where a company that becomes insolvent or liquidated owes VAT and all associated penalties, each person who is a director of the company is liable to pay to the Chief Executive Officer such VAT owed and all the associated penalties.
PART 7 - RETURNS AND PAYMENT OF TAX

Section 32
Taxable periods

(1) Each registered person shall be placed by the Chief Executive Officer in one of the following categories for the purposes of determining that person’s taxable periods for the purposes of this Act:

(a) Category A, with taxable periods of one month ending on the last day of each month in each year.

(b) Category B, with taxable periods of three months ending on the last day of any month in any year, as may be determined by the Chief Executive Officer;

History

1. Inserted by Act No. 10 of 2012 the new paragraph (b) and deleting -

“(b) Category B, with taxable periods of three months ending on the last day of any month in any year, as may be determined by the Chief Executive Officer;”

[Amended by Act 1/93, s6(a)]

Effective from 1st January 2012.

2. Amended by Act No.44 of 2012 by deleting paragraph (b) –

(b) Category B, with the taxable periods of 12 months ending on the last day of any month in any year, for business with an annual gross turnover of three hundred thousand dollars and below;

Effective from 1st January, 2012

(c) Category C, with taxable period of 12 months ending on the last day of any month in any year, for produce suppliers primarily engaged in the supply of sugarcane as may be determined by the Chief Executive Officer;

(d) Category D, with taxable periods of 12 months ending on the last day of any month in any year, for small and medium enterprises with an annual gross turnover of three hundred thousand dollars and below;

Amended Act 1 of 1993, s6, commencement 1 January 1993; Decree 10 of 2012, s3, commencement 1 January 2012; Decree 44 of 2012, s4, commencement 1 January 2012
(2) Every registered person who is not placed in Category B or C or D pursuant to subsection (3), shall be placed by the Chief Executive Officer in Category A.

Amended Act 1 of 1993, s6, commencement 1 January 1993; Decree 44 of 2012, s4, commencement 1 January 2012

(3) The Chief Executive Officer may, on written application by a registered person, place that person in Category B or C or D if the total value of that person’s taxable supplies –

(a) has not, in the 12 months ending with the last day of any month, exceeded $300,000 or such other amount as the Minister may from time to time, by Legal Notice declare; or

(b) is not likely to exceed that amount in the period of 12 months beginning on the first day of any month.

Amended Act 28 of 1992, s6, commencement 1 July 1992; Decree 10 of 2012, s3, commencement 1 January 2012; Decree 44 of 2012, s4, commencement 1 January 2012.

(4) For the purposes of subsection (3), the total value of a registered person’s taxable supplies shall be deemed not to have exceeded any amount specified in or under that subsection where that total value exceeds any such amount solely as a consequence of-

(a) any cessation of, or any substantial and permanent reduction in the size or scale of, any taxable activity carried on by that registered person; or

(b) the replacement of any plant or other capital asset used in any taxable activity carried on by that registered person.

(5) The Chief Executive Officer may from time to time direct that a registered person change from category A to category B or C or D, as the case may be, category B or C or D to category A -

[Amended by Act 1/93, s6(e), Amended by Decree No.44 of 2012, opn 1 Jan 2012]

(a) on written application by the registered person; or

(b) following the notification by the registered person under Section 24(c) of a change in status; or

(c) where the Chief Executive Officer is otherwise satisfied that the registered person has ceased to satisfy the conditions of subsection (3), provided that a registered person may only make a written application to the Chief Executive Officer to change the category that determines the registered person’s taxable periods after the expiry of 12 months from the date on which the last written application was made.

Amended Act 1 of 1993, s6, commencement 1 January 1993; Decree 44 of 2012, s4, commencement 1 January 2012
(6) Where the Chief Executive Officer directs that a registered person change from one category to the other, the person shall be deemed to have been placed in the new category with effect from the day following the end of the taxable period during which the direction was made by the Chief Executive Officer.

(7) Notwithstanding anything in this section, the Chief Executive Officer may, upon written application by a registered person, determine a day in substitution for the last day referred to in subsection (1) (a), (b) and (c), not being a day more than seven days earlier or seven days later than that last day, but any such determination shall be disregarded for the purposes of Section 33 (1).

Section 33 Returns

History

Section 331(1) amended by inserting the words “with the accompanying Input tax schedule” after the word “return. Amended Promulgation 31 of 2008, s4, commencement 1 January 2009

(1) Every registered person shall, on or before the last day of the month following the last day of every taxable period, without notice or demand furnish to the Chief Executive Officer a tax return with the accompanying Input tax schedule, in such prescribed form as may be approved by the Chief Executive Officer.

(1A) Every registered person in the Western Division from Sigatoka to Ba, including those areas that were declared as Natural Disaster areas under the Natural Disaster Management Act 1998 or such other areas that the Chief Executive Officer deems to be affected by the flood during the months of March to May 2012 shall on 31st July, 2012, without notice or demand furnish to the Chief Executive Officer a tax return for the months of March to May 2012 for every taxable period, in the prescribed form with the accompanying input tax schedule except where the taxpayer is on self-assessment, the input tax schedule shall not be required.

(2) Any registered person who ceases to be registered shall, not later than one month after so ceasing, furnish to the Chief Executive Officer a final tax return, in such form as may be approved by the Chief Executive Officer, in respect of that part of the last taxable period during which that registered person was registered.

Section 34  Special Returns

Where goods are deemed to be supplied by a person pursuant to Section 3 (3), the person selling the goods, whether or not that person is a registered person, shall, on or before the last day of the month following the month within which the sale was made, -

(a) furnish to the Chief Executive Officer in the prescribed form a return showing -

(i) that person’s name and address and, if registered taxpayer identification number;
(ii) the name, address, and taxpayer identification number of the person whose goods were sold;
(iii) the date of the sale;
(iv) the description and quantity of the goods sold;
(v) the amount for which they were sold and the amount of tax charged on that supply; and
(vi) such other particulars as may be prescribed;
(b) pay to the Chief Executive Officer the amount of tax charged on that supply; and
(c) send to the person whose goods were sold a copy of the return referred to in paragraph (a), and the person selling the goods and the person whose goods were sold shall exclude from any return, other than a return required pursuant to this section, which either or both may be required to furnish under this Act, the tax charged on that supply of goods.

Section 35  Other returns

In addition to the returns specified in sections 33 and 34, the Chief Executive Officer may require any person, whether a registered person or not, to furnish (whether on that person’s own behalf or as an agent or trustee) to the Chief Executive Officer such further or other returns in the prescribed form as and when the Chief Executive Officer requires for the purpose of this Act.

Section 36  Accounting basis

(1) Subject to this Section, every registered person shall account for tax payable on an invoice basis for the purposes of section 39.
(2) The Chief Executive Officer may, on application in writing by a registered person, direct that the registered person account for the tax payable on a payments basis for the purposes of section 39 if -
   (a) that registered person is a public authority, local authority or a non-profit body; or
   (b) in respect of that registered person -
      (i) at the end of any month, the total value of the person’s taxable supplies in the period of 12 months then ending has not exceeded $100,000 or such other amount as the Minister may from time to time, by Legal Notice declare; or
      (ii) in the 12 months beginning on the first day of any month, the total value of that person’s taxable supplies is not likely to exceed the amount specified in subparagraph (i).

(3) Where the Chief Executive Officer has, pursuant to subsection (2), directed that a registered person account for tax payable on a payments basis, and -
   (a) that registered person has ceased to satisfy the conditions of subsection (2) under which any such direction may be given, and –
      (i) that registered person has notified the Chief Executive Officer under section 24 (d) of a change in status; or
      (ii) the Chief Executive Officer is otherwise satisfied that the registered person has ceased to satisfy the conditions of subsection (2); or
   (b) that registered person has made an application in writing to the Chief Executive Officer to account for tax payable on an invoice basis -

the Chief Executive Officer shall direct that that registered person account for the tax payable on an invoice basis.

(4) Where the Chief Executive Officer gives a direction in respect of a registered person’s accounting basis under subsection (2) or (3), the registered person shall account for the tax payable on the accounting basis directed by the Chief Executive Officer with effect from -
   (a) the commencement of the taxable period immediately following the taxable period during which the direction is given by the Chief Executive Officer, in any case to which paragraph (b) does not apply; or
   (b) the person’s registration under this Act, where the direction is given by the Chief Executive Officer before the end of the first taxable period of the person that follows that registration.

(5) For the purposes of subsection (3), the total value of a registered person’s taxable supplies shall be deemed not to have exceeded any amount specified in or under subsection (2) where the total value exceeds any such amount solely as a consequence of -
(a) any cessation of, or any substantial and permanent reduction in the size or scale of, any taxable activity carried on by that registered person; or
(b) the replacement of any plant or other capital asset used in any taxable activity carried on by that registered person.

Section 37  Particulars to be furnished and prepared where change in accounting basis

(1) Where the Chief Executive Officer directs a change in a registered person’s accounting basis under section 36, the registered person shall furnish to the Chief Executive Officer particulars in the prescribed form calculating the tax payable in respect of the change in the basis of accounting.

(2) The particulars required to be furnished under subsection (1) shall be furnished to the Chief Executive Officer not later than the last day for furnishing a return pursuant to section 33 (1) for the taxable period preceding that in which the direction of the Chief Executive Officer takes effect.

(3) Where the Chief Executive Officer directs a change in a registered person’s accounting basis under section 36, the registered person shall prepare -
(a) A list of creditors of the registered person in relation to that person’s taxable activity, showing the amounts due by that person as at the last day of the taxable period preceding that in which the direction takes effect; and
(b) A list of debtors of the registered person in relation to that person’s taxable activity, showing the amount due to that person as at the last day of the taxable activity in which the direction takes effect.

Section 38  Tax payable, or refund, where change in accounting basis

(1) Every registered person whose accounting basis is changed pursuant to section 36 shall, not later than the last day allowed under section 37 (2) for furnishing particulars in respect of the change, pay to the Chief Executive Officer the tax payable (if any) as determined pursuant to this section.
(2) Where a registered person changes from an invoice basis to a payments basis of accounting, the tax payable under the subsection (1) shall be an amount determined in accordance with the following formula:

\[(a - b) - (c - d)\]

where -

- \(a\) is an amount equal to the aggregate amount of the input tax deducted pursuant to section 39 in relation to any taxable period up to and including the taxable period preceding that in which the direction changing the person’s accounting basis takes effect; and
- \(b\) is an amount equal to the aggregate amount of input tax that would have been deducted pursuant to section 39 if the person had, for those taxable periods been accounting for tax payable on a payments basis; and
- \(c\) is an amount equal to the aggregate amount of the output tax accounted for pursuant to section 39 in those taxable periods; and
- \(d\) is an amount equal to the aggregate amount of output tax that would have been accounted for pursuant to section 39 if the person had, for those taxable periods, been accounting for tax payable on a payments basis.

(3) Where a registered person changes from a payments basis to an invoice basis of accounting, the tax payable under subsection (1) shall be an amount determined in accordance with the following formula:

\[(a - b) - (c - d)\]

where

- \(a\) is an amount equal to the aggregate amount of output tax that would have been accounted for pursuant to section 39 if the person had, in relation to any taxable period up to and including the taxable period preceding that in which the direction changing the person’s accounting basis takes effect, been accounting for tax payable on an invoice basis; and
- \(b\) is an amount equal to the aggregate amount of the output tax accounted for pursuant to section 39 in those taxable periods; and
- \(c\) is an amount equal to the aggregate amount of input tax that would have been deducted pursuant to section 39 if the person had, for those taxable periods been accounting for tax payable on an invoice basis; and
- \(d\) is an amount equal to the aggregate amount of the input tax accounted for pursuant to section 39 in those taxable periods.

(4) Subject to this Act, if, in relation to any particulars required to be furnished by section 37, the amount determined in accordance with subsection (2) or (3) is a negative amount, the amount of the negative amount shall be refunded to the registered person by the Chief Executive Officer pursuant to Section 65.

(5) For the purposes of this Act, any previous adjustment made to input tax or output tax, as the case may be, when a registered person changed -
   (a) from an invoice basis to a payments basis; or
   (b) from a payments basis to an invoice basis shall be deemed to have been deducted, or accounted for, as the case may be, pursuant to Section 39.

Section 39 Calculation of tax payable

(1) In respect of each taxable period every registered person shall calculate the amount of tax payable by that registered person in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(2) Subject to this section, in calculating the amount of tax payable in respect of each taxable period, there shall be deducted from the amount of output tax of a registered person attributable to the taxable period -
   (a) where all the supplies made or to be made by the registered person are or will be taxable supplies, the total amount of the input tax;

   (b) where some, but not all, the supplies made or to be made by the registered person are or will be taxable supplies-
      (i) all the input tax for the taxable period that is in respect of goods and services supplied to or imported by that registered person wholly for the purposes of making, whether or not during that taxable period, taxable supplies;
      (ii) none of the input tax for the taxable period that is in respect of goods and services supplied to or imported by that registered person wholly for the purposes of making, whether or not during that taxable period, supplies which are not taxable supplies;
      (iii) such proportion of the input tax for the taxable period that is not in respect of supplies referred to in subparagraphs (i) and (ii) of this paragraph as the value of the registered person’s taxable supplies during that taxable period or, such longer period that the Chief Executive Officer considers equitable, represents as a proportion of the registered person’s total supplies during that taxable period or, such longer period as allowed by

Section 39(6) amended by inserting the proviso. [Promulgation No. 31 of 2008 WEF 1st January 2009]
(6) Where a registered person is entitled, pursuant to the provisions of this section, to deduct input tax in respect of any taxable period from the amount of output tax attributable to that taxable period, the registered person may deduct that amount from the amount attributable to any later taxable period to the extent that it has not previously been deducted from the output tax of that registered person, provided that no input claim shall be allowed under this subsection after the expiration of the period of 3 years after the end of the taxable period.

(7) For the purposes of subsection (2) (b), where, in relation to a taxable period, the value of supplies made by a registered person that are not taxable supplies is not more than -
(a) 5% of the value of all supplies made by that person during that taxable period; or
(b) the amount of $4,000,

whichever is the lesser, any input tax, other than input tax to which subsection (2) (b) (ii) applies, shall be deemed to have been incurred wholly for the purposes of making taxable supplies.

(8) If, in relation to any taxable period and any registered person, the total amount that may be deducted under subsection (2) and section 86 exceeds that aggregate amount of output tax of that registered person attributable to that taxable period, the amount of excess may, subject to this Act, be refunded to that registered person by the Chief Executive Officer pursuant to section 65.

(9) Notwithstanding anything in this section, a registered person who makes a payment to which subsection (8) or section 3 (8A) applies shall not be allowed a deduction for the Value Added Tax payable under those subsections.

Amended Decree 11 of 2012, s4, commencement 1 August 2010

History
1. Decree No.42 of 2010 inserted a new subsection (9) –

“(9) No deduction shall be allowed for any VAT charged
(a) on any payment made during the taxable period by a registered person, to indemnify another person pursuant to any contract of insurance, which shall apply only where the supply of that contract of insurance is a taxable supply; or
(b) where the supply of that contract of insurance would have been taxable supply if the time of performance of that supply is on or after the 1st of August, 2010.”

Effective from 1st August 2010.

2. Decree No.11 of 2012 amended subsection (9) by deleting and substituted with a new subsection (9). Effective from 1st August 2012.

(10) Notwithstanding anything in this section, a registered person under section 22(4B) and (5) who makes payment for any expenses including the construction of the residential property for rental shall be allowed a deduction from the date of registration.

Amended Act 14 of 2017, s6, commencement 1 August 2016
Section 40  Payment of tax

(1) Every registered person, for each taxable period, shall, not later than the last day allowed under this Act for furnishing a return for that taxable period, pay to the Chief Executive Officer the tax payable for that period as calculated pursuant to section 39.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), where a later due date has been fixed pursuant to section 44, the tax payable shall be paid to the Chief Executive Officer on or before that later due date.

(3) Subject to Parts 8 and 9, the amount set forth as tax payable on any tax return furnished by a registered person shall be conclusively deemed and taken to be correct for the purposes of this Act.

(4) A return purporting to be made by or on behalf of any person shall for all purposes be deemed to have been made by that person or by that person’s authority, as the case may be, unless the contrary is proved.

(5) For the purpose of section 33(1A), every registered person in the Western Division from Sigatoka to Ba, including those areas that were declared as Natural Disaster areas under the Natural Disaster Management Act 1998 or such other areas that the Chief Executive Officer deems to be affected by the flood during the months of March to May, 2012 shall pay to the Chief Executive Officer, not later than 31st July, 2012 the tax payable for the months of March to May in 2012 calculated pursuant to section 39.

Amended Decree 37 of 2012, s37, commencement 15 March 2012;

Section 41  Tax invoices

Except as otherwise provided by regulation, a supplier, being a registered person, making a taxable supply to a recipient, shall issue a tax invoice containing such particulars as specified by regulation at the time that the supply takes place, provided that -

(a) it shall not be lawful to issue more than one tax invoice for each taxable supply;
(b) if a registered person claims to have lost the original tax invoice, the supplier or the recipient, as the case may be, may provide a copy clearly marked “copy only”.

Section 42  Credit and debit notes

(1) This section shall apply where a registered person has issued a tax invoice in respect of a taxable supply and -

(a) that supply has been cancelled; or
(b) the previously agreed consideration for the supply has been altered whether due to an offer of discount (not being a discount for prompt payment which is clearly stated on the face of the tax invoice) or otherwise; or
(c) the goods and services or part of the goods and services supplied have been returned to the supplier.

(2) Where this Section applies, the supplier shall issue to the recipient a credit note or, as the case may be, a debit note containing such particulars as specified by regulation, to adjust the amount shown on the tax invoice as being in respect of tax to the amount, if any, that would have been so shown if -
(a) the cancellation or alteration referred to in subsection (1) (a) or (b) had taken place before the tax invoice was issued;
(b) the goods and services returned had not been supplied; provided that -

Section 43 Bad debts

(1) Where -
(a) a registered person has made a taxable supply for consideration in money; and
(b) that registered person has furnished a return in relation to the taxable period during which the supply was made and has properly accounted for tax on that supply as required under this Act; and
(c) the registered person has written off as a bad debt the whole or part of the consideration not paid to him or her; and
(d) the registered person has taken all reasonable steps to recover the bad debt; and
(e) the registered person satisfies the Chief Executive Officer that there is no reasonable or probable expectation that the bad debt will ever be recovered, then the Chief Executive Officer may allow the registered person to make a deduction under section 39 (2) of that portion of the amount of tax chargeable in relation to that supply as the amount written off as a bad debt bears to the total consideration for the supply, provided that where goods and services are supplied under -

(i) a hire purchase agreement (being a conditional sale agreement whereby the property in the goods will pass to the bailee); or
(ii) a financial lease (being an agreement to lease whereby the lessee is expressly required or has the option to purchase the goods subject to the lease at a guaranteed residual value or nil), the registered person shall only make a deduction under this Act of the tax fraction of that portion of the amount written off as a bad debt as the cash price bears to the total amount payable under the hire purchase agreement or, as the case may be, the financial lease.

(2) Where any amount in respect of which a deduction has been made in accordance with subsection (1) is at any time wholly or partly recovered by the registered person, that portion of the amount of the deduction allowable under subsection (1) as the amount of the bad debt recovered bears to the bad debt written off shall be deemed to be the tax charged in relation to a taxable supply made during the taxable period in which the bad debt is wholly or partly recovered.

PART 8 - ASSESSMENT OF TAX

Section 44
Assessment of tax

(1) Where -

(a) the Commissioner has reason to believe that any person, although that person is not required to make a return, is liable to pay tax; or

(b) any person, not being a registered person, supplies goods and services and represents that tax is chargeable on that supply, - the Chief Executive Officer shall make an assessment of the amount which, in his or her opinion, is the tax payable pursuant to this Act and that registered person shall be liable to pay the tax so assessed.

Amended Decree 50 of 2009, s117 and Sch 4, commencement 1 January 2010
(2) For the purpose of ensuring that a person does not pay tax more than once in relation to a taxable supply, a registered person shall –

(a) only charge and pay the CEO the tax that is payable for the taxable supply provided by the registered person; and

(b) not charge tax for a taxable supply where tax has been charged by another registered person with respect to that taxable supply.

Inserted by Value Added Tax (Budget Amendment) 2017

(3) The Chief Executive Officer shall cause notice of the assessment to be sent to the person liable to pay the tax.

History

S 44 in subsection (3) is amended by Tax Administration Act 50/2009 WEF 27th November 2009. Previously read –

(2) “Subject to Section 48 of this Act, the Chief Executive Officer may from time to time and at any time make all such alterations in or addition to an assessment made under this Section as he thinks necessary to ensure the correctness thereof, notwithstanding that tax or further tax may have been paid”

(4) “In any case where an assessment is not made until after the due date of the tax payable or is increased after the due date, and the Chief Executive Officer is satisfied that the registered person has not been guilty of willful neglect or default in making due and complete returns for the purposes of that tax, the Chief Executive Officer shall fix a new date, being one month after the date of the assessment, for the payment of the tax payable or of the increase in the tax payable, as the case may be, and the date so fixed shall be deemed to be the due date of the tax or increase for the purposes of this Act”.

Page 74 - Value Added Tax Act 1991 revised to 31st August 2017
For the purposes of this section, the Chief Executive Officer may, in the assessment of one taxable period, raise or include assessment of any other taxable period.

Section 45
Validity of the assessment

“The validity of an assessment shall not be affected by reason that any of the provisions of this Act have not been complied with.”

Section 46
Assessment deemed correct except in proceedings on objection

Except in proceedings on objection to an assessment under Section 50 of this Act, no assessment made by the Chief Executive Officer shall be disputed in any Court or in any proceedings, either on grounds that the person so assessed is not a registered person or any other ground; and except as aforesaid, every such assessment and all the particulars thereof shall be conclusively deemed and taken to be correct and the liability of the person so assessed shall be determined accordingly.”

Section 48  Limitation of time for issue of an assessment or amendment of assessment

History

S 48 amended by deleting the word “made” in the first line and replacing with the word “furnished”. [Amendment No 1 of 1992. Act No 28, effective 1 July 1992]

(1) Where any registered person has furnished a return in respect of any taxable period or has been assessed for tax or further tax in respect of that period, it shall not be lawful for the Chief Executive Officer to issue an assessment or reopen an assessment after the expiration of six years from the end of the taxable period in respect of which the return was furnished or when the assessment was made.

[Amended by Act 28/92, s25(a), (b)]

(2) Notwithstanding anything in subsection (1) of this Section where any registered person has failed to make a return as required by this Act or in the opinion of the Chief Executive Officer has knowingly and fraudulently failed to make a full and true disclosure to the Chief Executive Officer of any material facts necessary to determine the true amount of tax payable, the Chief Executive Officer may at any time:
(a) where an assessment has not been issued, make an assessment; or

(b) where an assessment has been issued, amend the assessment so as to amend or alter the assessment thereof.”
PART 9 - OBJECTION AND APPEALS

Section 49  Objection to determination to treat non-profit body

(1) Where the Chief Executive Officer has in his opinion, pursuant to Section 4(3)(c) of this Act, determined that any person (being a non-profit body) is carrying on a taxable activity or, as the case may be, is not carrying on a taxable activity, and that person is dissatisfied with that determination, that person may object to that determination as if that determination were an assessment.

(2) The Chief Executive Officer shall give notice of any determination pursuant to Section 4(3)(c) of this Act to the person affected thereby.

(3) For the purposes of this section, section 50 and Sections 55 to 59 shall, in relation to any objection under this section, apply with any necessary modifications in the same manner and to the same extent that they would apply if the said objection were an objection made under section 50.

History

S 50 sub-sections (2) (3) (5) (6) repealed. [Amendment No 1 of 1992. Act No 28, effective 1 July 1992]

(1) Any registered person dissatisfied with an assessment may, personally or by his agent, within twenty eight days of the date upon which the notice of assessment has been served upon him or his agent or, where such notice has been posted, the date of posting, lodge with the Chief Executive Officer an objection in writing to the assessment in the form set out in Form 2 in the Third Schedule to this Act stating fully and in detail the grounds on which he objects:

Provided that, where the assessment is an amended assessment, the person so assessed shall have no further right of objection except to the extent to which, by reason of the amendment, a fresh liability in respect of any particular is imposed on him or an existing liability in respect of any particular is increased.

(2) No notice of objection given after the time specified in the notice of assessment shall be of any force or effect unless the Chief Executive Officer, in the Chief Executive Officer’s discretion, accepts the same and gives notice to the objector accordingly.
[Repealed and substituted by Act 28/92, s26(a)]

Previously read -
“(2) The Chief Executive Officer may, in his discretion, extend the time for giving notice of objection under subsection (1) of this Section.”

(3) On receipt of the notice of objection referred to in subsection (1) of this Section, the Chief Executive Officer may require any person to furnish such particulars as the Chief Executive Officer may deem necessary in accordance with Sections 11 and 12 of this Act.

[Repealed and substituted by Act 28/92, s26(b)]

Previously read -

“(3) On receipt of the notice of objection referred to in subsection (1) of this Section, the Chief Executive Officer may require the registered person so assessed to furnish such particulars as the Chief Executive Officer may deem necessary with respect to the supplies made and received by that person and to produce all books or other documents in that person’s custody or under that person’s control relating to such supplies, and may summon any person who, the Chief Executive Officer thinks, is able to give evidence respecting the assessment to attend before him and may examine such person (except the clerk, agent, servant or other person confidentially employed in the affairs of that person) on oath or otherwise.”

(4) The Chief Executive Officer shall consider the objection and shall either allow or disallow it wholly or in part.

Provided that the Chief Executive Officer shall not be required to consider any objection unless and until the objector has complied with all requirements under this Act for the furnishing of returns and the payment of tax.

(5) If an objection is not wholly allowed by the Chief Executive Officer, the objector may, within two months after the date on which notice of disallowance is given to the objector by or on behalf of the Chief Executive Officer, by notice in writing to the Chief Executive Officer require that the objection be heard and determined by the Tribunal.

[Repealed and substituted by Act 28/92, s26(c)]

Previously read -

“(5) The Chief Executive Officer shall give written notice of his allowance or disallowance of the objection to the registered person objecting and shall state in such notice the time, not being less than twenty eight days, within which such person may exercise the right of appeal given to him in subsection (7) of this Section. Any notice required to be given under this subsection shall be sent by the registered post and the period within which an appeal may be lodged shall commence upon the date of posting of the notice.”

(6) Any person objecting to the decision of the Commissioner under subsection (4) of this Section may, within the time determined under subsection (5) of this Section, appeal to the Tribunal and such appeal shall be heard and determined as hereinafter provided. Save with the leave of the Tribunal, no person may appeal to the Tribunal upon any ground other than a ground stated in the objection to the Commissioner.

Previously read -

“(6) Where, before the expiration of the time specified in a notice given under subsection (5) of this Section, the registered person to whom the notice is given makes application in writing to the Commissioner for an extension of that time, the Commissioner may, in his discretion, extend that time for such period as he thinks fit and shall, as soon as practicable, give notice in writing to the applicant of his decision, and, where the time is so extended, a reference in this Act to the time specified in a notice given under subsection (5) of this Section shall be deemed to include a reference to that time as so extended.”

(7) The obligation to pay and the right to receive and recover any tax chargeable under this Act (including any interest, costs and penalties) shall not, unless the Chief Executive Officer so directs, be suspended by any objection or appeal or pending the decision of the Tribunal under Section 55 of this Act but, if any assessment is altered on objection or appeal or in conformity with any such decision, a due adjustment shall be made, amounts paid in excess being refunded subject to Section 65 of this Act and amounts shortpaid being recoverable.

[Amended by Act 28/92, s26(f)]
Where no objection is made within the time for objecting set out in subsection (1) of this Section or where that time is extended by the Chief Executive Officer, within the time so extended, the assessment shall stand and shall be valid and binding upon the registered person, notwithstanding any defect, error or omission that may have been made therein or in any proceeding required by this Act or any regulation thereunder."

PART X - RECOVERY OF TAX

Section 60  Additional tax to be payable if default made in the furnishing of returns or payment of tax

History

S 60 repealed by Tax Administration Act 50/2009 WEF 27th November 2009. Previously read-

“(a) on the amount of any tax remaining unpaid at the expiry of the due date, additional tax of ten percent.”

[Amended Act No 16 of 1995, effective 1 January 1995]

Subject to this Section, additional tax shall be, and be deemed to be, added to any tax remaining unpaid, and shall be payable accordingly, as follows:

(a) where any return for any taxable period is not furnished or any tax remains unpaid on the expiry of the due date then notwithstanding anything contained in any other section of this Act, additional tax of ten percent of the tax payable in respect of that taxable period;

(b) on the amount of so much, if any, of the tax, (being the tax referred to in paragraph (a) of this subsection and the additional tax added thereto in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (a) of this subsection) as remains unpaid at the expiry of the day on which there expires the period of one month immediately following the due date referred to in paragraph (a) of this subsection, additional tax of two and a half percent;

(c) on the amount of so much, if any, of the tax (being the tax referred to in paragraph (a) of this subsection, the additional tax added thereto in accordance with the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection, and the additional tax, if any, theretofore added thereto in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph) as remains unpaid at the expiry of any of the periods of one month that, consecutively, succeed the period of one month referred to in paragraph (b) of this subsection, additional tax of two and a half percent.”

[Amended by Act 28/92, s29]

Section 61  Recovery of Tax

(2) Where a registered person has not paid the amount of the tax payable or any part thereof in the manner required by Part 7 of this Act, the amount of tax for the time being unpaid to the Chief Executive Officer shall, in the application of the assets of the registered person, rank as follows-
(a) where the person is an individual, upon his bankruptcy or upon his making an assignment for the benefit of his creditors, the amount of the tax payable shall rank without limitation on amount, in priority to all other claims:

(b) where the person is a company, upon the liquidation of the company or upon the appointment of a receiver on behalf of the holder of any debentures given by the company secured by a charge over any property of the company or upon possession being taken on behalf of that debenture holder of that property, the amount of tax payable shall rank in priority over the claims of holders of debentures under any floating charge created by the company and be paid accordingly out of any property comprised in or subject to that charge:

(c) where a person is a body as defined in Section 26, the amount of any tax payable shall rank ahead of any claims of holders of debentures under any floating charge created by the person and be paid accordingly out of any property comprised in or subject to that charge.

(3) Trustees in bankruptcy, assignees, administrators, executors, liquidators and receivers appointed and other like persons before distributing any assets under their control shall obtain a certificate from the Chief Executive Officer certifying that their requirements relating to tax, interest and penalties properly chargeable against the person, property, business or estate, as the case may be, have been satisfied. Distribution without such certificate shall render such persons personally liable for the tax and interest and penalties.

(4) For the purpose of this section, a floating charge shall include a charge that conferred a floating security at the times of its creation but has since become a fixed or specific charge.

(5) This section shall apply notwithstanding anything in any other Act.

(6) Any charge created by this Section which is registered against any property shall operate to secure any amount secured by any prior unregistered charge and unpaid at the time of the registration of the charge, to the extent that the registered charge shall operate to secure the total of all amounts for the time being owing by the registered person under all charges created by this Section.

History
Sub-section (7) amended by renumbering existing sub-sec (7) as 7(a) and adding new sub-sec (7) (b) as follows:

(7) (a) If any amount constitutes by virtue of this Section a charge on any property, the High Court may make such order as it thinks fit, either for the sale of that property or any part thereof, or for the appointment of a receiver of the rents, profits or income thereof, and for the payment of the amount of the charge and the costs of the Chief Executive Officer out of the proceeds of the sale or out of the rents, profits, or income.

(b) If any amount constitutes by virtue of this section a charge on any personal property, the Chief Executive Officer may sell or concur with any other person in selling the said property, or any part thereof, whether by public auction or private contract, to recover the amount so charged and the expenses of the sale, and no purchaser shall be bound to see or inquire into the propriety or regularity of any such sale.

[Amended Act No 16 of 1995, effective 1 January 1995]

(8) Where any property has been sold under any such order, the High Court may, on the application of the purchaser make an order vesting the property in the purchaser.

(9) Every such vesting order shall have the same effect as if all persons entitled to the property had been free from all disability and had duly executed all proper conveyances, transfers, and assignments of the property for such estate or interest as is specified in the order and the order shall be subject to stamp duty accordingly.

Section 63 Deduction of tax from payment due to defaulters

History
S 63 sub-sec (1) amended by adding the words “by deposit or” after the word “thereon” and the words “and whether or not the account into which the money is deposited is overdrawn” after the word “money”.

[Amended Act No 16, effective 1 January 1995]

(1) For the purposes of this Section-

“Amount payable”, in relation to a person and to any registered person means any amount that is payable by the person (whether on that person’s own account, or as an agent, or as a trustee, or otherwise howsoever) to the registered person and includes, where that person is a bank, money including any interest thereon by deposit or deposited to the credit of that registered person with that bank, whether on current account or so as to bear interest for a fixed term or without limitation of time, and whether or not the registered person has made any application to withdraw or uplift, that money and whether or not the account into which the money is deposited is overdrawn;

“Bank” means any bank that is a bank within the meaning of the Banking Act.

(2) Where any registered person has made default in the payment to the Chief Executive Officer of any tax or any part thereof payable by the registered person, the Chief Executive Officer may from time to time by notice in writing require any person to -
(a) deduct or extract from any amount payable or any amount to become payable by that person to the registered person such sum as is specified in the notice; and
(b) pay to the Chief Executive Officer, within such time as is specified in the notice, every sum to be deducted or extracted, to the credit of an account maintained by the Chief Executive Officer in relation to that tax.

(3) Any notice under this Section may be at any time revoked by the Chief Executive Officer by a subsequent notice to the person to whom the original notice was sent, and shall be so revoked at the request of the registered person at any time when the Chief Executive Officer is satisfied that all tax then payable by the registered person have been paid.

(4) A copy of every notice sent under this Section in respect of any registered person and of the revocation of any such notice shall be sent to the registered person by the Chief Executive Officer.

(5) Whenever, pursuant to a notice under this Section, any deduction or extraction is made from any amount payable to any registered person, the registered person shall be entitled to receive from the debtor a statement in writing of the fact of the deduction or extraction and of the purpose for which it was made.

(6) Any person making any deduction, extraction, or payment pursuant to a notice under this Section shall be deemed to have been acting under the authority of the registered person to whom the notice relates and of all other persons concerned and is hereby indemnified in respect of such deduction, extraction, or payment.

(7) The sum deducted or extracted from any amount pursuant to a notice under this Section shall be deemed to be held in trust for the State, and, without prejudice to any other remedies against the debtor or any other person, shall be recoverable in the same manner in all respects as if it were tax payable by the debtor.

(8) Any person receiving such notice of deduction as aforesaid who is unable to comply therewith on account of the fact that the monies in question do not come into his possession within the period specified in such notice shall notify the Chief Executive Officer within fourteen days of the expiration of such period, acquainting him with the facts.

(9) Where, in relation to any notice under this Section and during any period, that period being,-
(a) where a notice under subsection (2) of this Section requires any person, being a bank, to deduct or extract no more than one sum, the period that commences on the day on which the notice to the person is given and expires with the day on which the deduction or extraction is required to be made in compliance with the notice:

(b) where a notice under subsection (2) of this Section requires any person, being a bank, to deduct or extract more than one sum, by way of installment,-

(i) in relation to the sum first required deducted or extracted in compliance with the notice, the period that commences on the day on which the notice to the person is given and expires with the day on which the deduction or to be extraction is so required to be made:

(ii) in relation to each succeeding sum required to be deducted or extracted in compliance with the notice, the period that commences on the day immediately following the day on which the previous deduction or extraction (being the deduction or extraction that, in relation to that succeeding sum, was the deduction or extraction last required to be made therefore) was required to be made in compliance with the notice and expires with the day on which that succeeding sum is so required to be deducted or extracted, - any amount is, or becomes, an amount payable in relation to the registered person, that amount or, as the case may be, the aggregate of all such amounts shall, until the expiry of that period and to the extent of an amount that is equal to the amount of the sum that, in compliance with the notice, is required to be deducted or

Section 67  Interest on late refunds

(1) Where the Chief Executive Officer is required by section 65 (2) to refund any amount to a registered person and the Chief Executive Officer does not refund that amount within the period specified in that subsection, there shall, subject to the provisions of section 65, be paid by the Chief Executive Officer to the registered person interest on so much, if any, of the amount as is required to be refunded by the Chief Executive Officer to the registered person in accordance with section 38(4) or section 39 (8).

(2) Interest payable in accordance with this section shall be payable, in relation to any amount required to be refunded or set off by the Chief Executive Officer by the provisions of section 65, that, in the said period, is an amount applied to, or standing to, the credit of the account of the registered person with the Chief Executive Officer, and shall be calculated in accordance with the following formula:

\frac{X \times Y \times Z}{365}
\]

where -

- \(X\) is the number of days in the period, -

(a) in relation to any case where section 65 (5) applies, -
   (i) that commences on the day following the end of the month following the month in which the registered person complied with the requirement to furnish outstanding returns; and
   (ii) ends on the day on which the amount required to be refunded by the Chief Executive Officer by the provisions of section 65 is refunded or is set off by the Chief Executive Officer in accordance with this Act:

(b) in relation to any case where section 65 (6) applies, -
   (i) that commences on, whichever of the following days is the latest, the day following the end of the month following the month in which the return was due to be furnished or was furnished, or the day following the day on which a notice was given by the Chief Executive Officer pursuant to of section 65 (7); and
   (ii) ends on the day on which the amount to be refunded by the Chief Executive Officer by the provisions of section 65 is set off by the Chief Executive Officer in accordance with subsection (6) of that Section:

(c) in relation to any other case, -
   (i) that commences on the day following the end of the month following the month in which the return was due to be furnished or was furnished (whichever is the later); and
   (ii) ends on, whichever of the following days is the earlier, the day on which the amount required to be refunded by the Chief Executive Officer by the provisions of section 65 is refunded by the Chief Executive Officer in accordance with this Act, or the day on which a notice is given by the Chief Executive Officer pursuant to section 65 (7); and
Y is the lesser of the amount required to be refunded or the amount still to be set off pursuant to section 65 (6); and

Z is the rate of interest per annum, which is the fair market interest rate as determined by the Reserve Bank of Fiji or such other rate as the Minister may from time to time, by Legal Notice declare.

(3) Where the Chief Executive Officer is satisfied that the amount of any interest paid to the registered person under this section is in excess of the proper amount, the Chief Executive Officer may recover the amount of the excess in the same manner, with any necessary modifications, as if it were tax payable by the registered person.

(4) Notwithstanding anything in this Section no amount shall be payable in terms of this Section where the registered person, his or her agent, his or her representative, or any person associated with a registered person has not complied with any request for any information, documents or co-operation by the Chief Executive Officer.

Section 70  Dwelling House

70 – (1) Where –

(a) a new dwelling house; or

(b) land acquired for the purpose of building a new dwelling house, is a taxable supply to an eligible person by a registered person in the course or furtherance of a taxable activity carried on by that registered person, the Chief Executive Officer upon application by the eligible person shall refund an amount of tax paid in respect of that supply calculated with subsection (4).

(2) Any claim under subsection (1) by an eligible person can only be made once.

(3) The Chief Executive Officer shall prescribe a form for applications made under subsection (1) and such applications must be supported by tax invoices or other evidence as the Chief Executive Officer deems necessary.

(4) For the purpose of subsection (1), the amount of refund of the tax paid in respect of the supply shall be lesser of –

(i) an amount equal to the tax fraction of $120,000 or such other amount as the Minister may declare in the Gazette; or

(ii) an amount equal to the tax fraction of the consideration in money for the supply.

(5) The Chief Executive Officer shall not refund any tax paid on any land under subsection (1) paragraph (b), until a new dwelling house is built on that land.

(6) Any eligible person may apply to the Chief Executive Officer for a refund of tax paid for goods and services purchased for the purpose of this section, provided the eligible person has –

(a) acquired the goods and services necessary to build a new dwelling house; or

(b) either constructed or arranged for construction of a new dwelling house, and the Chief Executive Officer is satisfied that those goods and services have been used in the construction of that new dwelling house.

(7) The Chief Executive Officer shall not be required to refund any tax to an eligible person unless, within 3 years after the time of supply of the new dwelling house or land on which a new dwelling house will be built for the eligible person, the eligible person has applied to the Chief Executive Officer for the refund of tax in the prescribed form.

(8) If an eligible person who is entitled to a refund under subsection (4), has an amount owing to the Chief Executive Officer by that person in respect of any tax, penalty, interest of costs under this Act or any other tax under the Tax Administration Act 2009, the Chief Executive Officer shall deduct that refund to pay for such other liability and the remaining excess be refunded to the eligible person.

(9) For the purpose of this section –

“dwelling house” in relation to an eligible person, means a building constructed solely as a first residential property of that eligible person and includes any land or appurtenances belonging to the dwelling house or usually enjoyed with it; and

“eligible person” means a natural person who is a citizen of Fiji and includes a non-profitable body approved by the Chief Executive Officer engaged in the provision of residential accommodation to the underprivileged; and

“new” means not having either used by any person acquired or held by any person for use of that person, or an existing dwelling house that passes from the possession of a registered person to an eligible person.

(10) Notwithstanding this section, where a new dwelling house commenced building prior to 1 January 2012 and the completion certificate is issued after the commencement of this Act, any application under this section by an eligible person, the Chief Executive Officer shall consider only tax invoices issued on or after 1 January, 2012 for the purposes of subsection (4).

(11) (a) Any person who is an approving officer for the processing of a completion certificate, who permits or conceals any act to connive or collude, directly or indirectly with any eligible person for any payment or reward whatsoever, commits an offence and is liable to a fine not exceeding $50,000 or 10 years imprisonment or both.

(b) Any tax officer who commits an offence under paragraph (a) shall be subject to section 57 under the Tax Administration Act 2009.

[Amended by Act 28/92, s33 (a)]

4. History

S 70(2) repealed by Promulgation No 46 of 2007 WEF 1st January 2008, previously read:

”(2) (a) Where –

(i) A new dwelling house; or
(ii) Land acquired for the purpose of having a new dwelling house erected on it, -is supplied by way of sale, being a supply to which subsection (1) of Section 15 of this Act applies, to an eligible person by a registered person in the course or furtherance of a taxable activity carried on by that registered person, the Chief Executive Officer shall, subject to this subsection, upon application by the eligible person, refund to the eligible person an amount of tax paid in respect of that supply calculated in accordance with paragraph (c) of this subsection:

Provided that such claim can only be made once by an eligible person.

(b) Every application made under paragraph (a) of this subsection by an eligible person shall be in such prescribed form as may be approved by the Chief Executive Officer and be supported by such tax invoices or other evidence as the Chief Executive Officer considers necessary.

(c) For the purposes of paragraph (a) of this subsection, the amount of the refund of the tax paid in respect of the supply shall be the lesser of -

(i) An amount equal to the tax fraction of $90,000 (or such other amount as the Minister may, from time to time, by Legal Notice declare):
(ii) An amount equal to the tax fraction of the consideration in money for the supply.

(d) The Chief Executive Officer shall not be required to refund any tax paid on any land to which subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (a) of this subsection refers until a new dwelling house has been erected on that land.

(e) Where an eligible person -

(i) Acquires goods and services necessary to construct a new dwelling house; and
(ii) has either constructed or arranged for the construction of that new dwelling house; andThe Chief Executive Officer is satisfied that those goods and services have been used in the construction of that new dwelling house, - that eligible person shall be eligible to make application to the Chief Executive Officer for a refund of the tax paid on those goods and services pursuant to the provisions of this subsection.

(f) Where an eligible person has authorised, in such prescribed form as may be approved by the Chief Executive Officer, that another person be paid any refund payable under this subsection, the Chief Executive Officer shall, subject to paragraph (h), refund that amount refundable to that authorised person.

(g) The Chief Executive Officer shall not be required to refund any tax under this subsection to an eligible person unless, within 5 years after the time of supply of the new dwelling house or land on which a new dwelling house will be erected for the eligible person, the eligible person has applied to the Chief Executive Officer for the refund of tax in the prescribed form and manner.

(ga) If, in respect of an eligible person to whom a refund is due in accordance with paragraph (c), there is an amount owing to the Chief Executive Officer by that person in respect of any tax, penalty, interest of costs [under this Act, or the Income Tax Act, or the Gambling Turnover Tax Act 1991] for that year or any other year of assessment, then such refund shall first be applied towards such other liability and only then shall any remaining excess be refunded to the taxpayer;

(h) For the purposes of this subsection -

“Dwelling house”, in relation to an eligible person, means a building constructed solely as a residence for the exclusive occupation, as a principal place of abode of that eligible person’s household; and includes any land, improvements, or appurtenances belonging to the dwelling house or usually enjoyed with it, but excludes any portion on which a taxable activity is carried out.

“Eligible person” means any natural person who is a citizen of Fiji; and includes a non-profit body, approved by the Chief Executive Officer engaged in the provision of residential accommodation to the underprivileged.

“New” means not having been either used by any person or acquired or held by any person for use of that person, or an existing dwelling house which passes from the possession of a registered person to an eligible person.

[Act No.16 effective 1/1/95]
PART 13 - MISCELLANEOUS

Section 79     Keeping of Records

(1) Every registered person who supplies in Fiji goods and services shall keep in Fiji sufficient records in the English language to enable ready ascertainment by the Chief Executive Officer or any officer authorised by him, of that person’s liability to tax and shall retain in Fiji all such records for a period of at least 7 years after the end of the taxable period to which they relate, provided that the requirement for the preservation of any records may be dispensed with -

(a) if the Chief Executive Officer gives written notice that preservation is not required;
(b) in the case of a company which has been wound-up and finally dissolved.

(2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (3), the records required to be kept and retained, pursuant to subsection (1), shall contain a record of all goods and services supplied by or to that registered person showing the goods and services, and the suppliers or their agents, in sufficient detail to enable the goods and services, the suppliers, or the agents to be readily identified by the Chief Executive Officer, and all invoices, tax invoices, credit notes, and debit notes relating thereto.

(3) For the purpose of this Section the term “records” includes books of account (whether contained in manual, mechanical, electronic format, or microfilm) recording receipts or payments or income or expenditure, and also includes vouchers, bank statements, invoices, tax invoices, credit notes, debit notes, receipts, and such other documents as are necessary to verify the entries in any such books of account.

Section 80     Contracts for avoidance of tax

(1) Notwithstanding anything in any law, every contract, agreement, transaction or arrangement made or entered into, orally or in writing, shall, so far as it has or purports to have the purpose or effect of in any way, directly or indirectly –

(a) altering the incidence of the tax; or
(b) relieving any person from liability to pay the tax or make any return; or
(c) defeating, evading or avoiding any liability imposed on any person by this Act; or
(d) preventing the operation of this Act in any respect, be absolutely void, as against the Chief Executive Officer, or in regard to any proceeding under this Act.

Amended Decree 28 of 1992, s35 commencement 1 July 1992
(2) The Chief Executive Officer may, for the purposes of this section, deem -
   (a) any person not being, apart from this subsection, a registered person who is a party to or has participated in any way in any contract, agreement, or arrangement, to be a registered person;
   (b) any supply of goods and services, whether or not a taxable supply, that is affected by or is part of any contract, agreement, or arrangement, to be both made to and made by any registered person;
   (c) any supply of goods and services to occur in any taxable period that but for any contract, agreement, or arrangement affected by this Section, would have been the taxable period in which the supply was made;
   (d) any supply of goods and services to have been made or consideration for such supply to be given, at open market value.

(3) Where –
   (a) any person (in this subsection hereafter referred to as the original person) enters into any arrangement on or after the 3 May 1991 whereby any taxable activity formerly carried on by the original person is carried on, in whole or in part, by any other person or other persons; and
   (b) the original person and the other person or other persons are not independent of each other, for the purposes of section 22, 32 or 36, the value of the supplies made in the course of carrying on all taxable activities in any period of 12 months commencing on the first day of any month by the original person and by the other person or, as the case may be, by any other person or other persons; and provided that the Chief Executive Officer may, having regard to the circumstances of the case and if the Chief Executive Officer thinks it equitable to do so, determine in any particular case that this subsection shall not apply to all or any of the original person and that other person or, as the case may be, those other persons.

Amended Decree 28 of 1992, s35 commencement 1 July 1992

Section 81 Liability to pay past tax

Except as otherwise expressly provided in any enactment, the repeal or amendment of any provision of this Act shall not affect any liability or right of any person that existed under the provision immediately before its repeal or amendment, and in particular, -

(a) any liability to tax, or to any fine or penalty, of any person pursuant to the repealed or amended provision, and the right of the State to any revenue, tax, fee, fine, or penalty pursuant to the repeal or amendment provision, shall not be affected by the repeal or amendment; and
(b) all acts and proceedings for the assessment or recovery of any revenue, tax, fine, or penalty assessed or assessable or paid or payable pursuant to the repealed or amended provision, and all proceedings in respect of offences committed or alleged to be committed in respect of the repealed or amended provision, may be instituted or continued as if the provision had not been repealed or amended.

Section 82
Price to be displayed

(1) For the purposes of this Act, the price of all goods and services supplied at the retail level in Fiji shall be displayed as inclusive of tax (if any) chargeable on that supply.

(2) After the 1 July 1993, it shall be unlawful for a registered person to display the tax component of the price of goods and services supplied at the retail level as a separate item.

(3) Notwithstanding anything in the foregoing provisions of this Section, where any tourism publicity material is or will be utilized overseas to advertise the supply of any goods and services by any registered person, the price of those goods and services advertised may be displayed as exclusive of tax (if any) chargeable on that supply, provided that any tourism publicity material on which an exclusive of tax price is displayed must clearly state that the price displayed is subject to the tax.

S 82 sub-section (4) amended by adding after the words “this Section” the words “and Section 41 of this Act”. [Amended Act No 16 of 1995, s21, commencement 1 January 1995; Act 31 of 2016, s223, commencement 1 December 2016.]

(4) The Commerce Commission, established under section 7 of the Commerce Commission Act 2010, shall be responsible for the administration of this section and Section 41 as if it were a function of the Commission specified under section 15 of the Commerce Commission Act 2010.

Section 83
Fijian Currency

For the purposes of this Act, all amounts of money shall be expressed in the Fijian currency, and in any case where and to the extent that any such amount is consideration in money for a supply, that amount shall be expressed in terms of Fijian currency as at the time of that supply.

Section 84
Regulations
(1) The Minister may from time to time, make regulations, not inconsistent with this Act, for all or any of the following purposes -

(a) prescribing the duties and functions of officers and other persons appointed or employed under this Act;

(b) prescribing the form or returns to be made, the particulars to be set forth therein, the persons by whom and the time when or within which such returns are to be made, and the forms of the assessments, notices, and other documents referred to in this Act or necessary in order to give effect thereto;

(c) providing, where there is no provision in this Act or no sufficient provision in respect of any matter or thing necessary to give effect to this Act, in whatever manner and form the deficiency shall be supplied;

(d) providing for such matters as are contemplated by or necessary for giving full effect to the provisions of this Act and for the due administration thereof; and

(e) providing for making, in any case or class of case, special arrangements to facilitate the deduction, collection, or payments of tax and for making rules to govern the operation of such arrangements.

(2) Any regulations made under the provisions of subsection (1) may prescribe in respect of any contravention of or failure to comply with any provisions thereof, on conviction, the like penalties as are provided under Part 12.

(1) Notwithstanding anything in section 22, every person who, on or before the last day of February 1992, knows, or could with reasonable diligence have known, that that person will be liable to be registered with effect on or from the 1 July 1992 pursuant to section 22, shall, to enable the Chief Executive Officer to effect registration of any such person with effect from 1 July 1992, apply for registration in the approved form, before 1 March 1992, to the Chief Executive Officer to be registered, and the Chief Executive Officer may register that person in the manner prescribed by section 22.

(2) Every other person who is liable to be registered under this Act on or after the 1 July 1992 shall apply for registration pursuant to section 22.

(3) Notwithstanding anything in section 1(2), this section shall come into force on 1 February, 1992.

Amended Decree 28 of 1992, s35 commencement 1 July 1992

Section 85A Registration of Insurance companies liable to be registered 1 August 2010

(1) Any person who supplies insurance services, including licensed insurance agents as defined in section 2 or brokers, unless already registered, shall where the person is liable to be registered under the provisions of section 22, be deemed to be registered with effect from the commencement of this Act.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 18(1), only new or renewed insurance policies issued on or after the commencement of this Act shall be taxable pursuant to this Act.

(3) Notwithstanding any provisions of this Act, a registered person shall be entitled to claim input tax credit for expenses incurred and paid or invoiced from 1 June, 2010 to 31 July, 2010, where such expenditure was utilized for the provision of taxable insurance supplies on or after the commencement of this Act.

History
1. Act No. 42 of 2010 inserted a new section 85A and subsection (1) and (2) previously read – “85A.- (1) Any person who supplies insurance services including licensed insurance brokers or agents under the Insurance Act 1998, for the purpose of section 3(8) and (8A) of the Act shall be registered in accordance with section 22 commencing on the 1st of August 2010.
   Effective from 1st August 2010.

   (2) Subject to section 18(1) any new or renewed policy should this be “made” receipt depends on delivery received by a registered person pursuant to any contract of insurance issued on or after the 1st of August 2010, shall be taxable pursuant to this Act.”

Amended Decree 11 of 2012, s5, commenced 1 August 2010.

Section 86 Deduction for Customs and Excise Duty

(1) For the purposes of this section -
   “capital asset” means any goods forming part of the capital assets of a taxable activity;
“customs Duty” means customs duty imposed by the Customs Tariff Act 1986 prior to 1 July 1992;

“excise duty” means excise duty imposed by the Excise Act 1986 prior to the 1 July 1992; and

“trading stock” has the same meaning as in the Income Tax Act 20156; but does not include -

(a) any capital asset; or
(b) any goods held on hire or for hire; or
(c) any second-hand goods, not being goods in respect of which that registered person has paid either customs duty or excise duty and those goods have not been supplied and subsequently acquired by that person;
(d) beer, cigarettes, manufactured tobacco, spirits, or stout subject to excise duty at specific rate;
(e) any goods being consumables and spare parts of the taxable activity;
(f) any goods that have been written off as being obsolete for income tax purposes.

Amended Act 31 of 2016, s223 commencement 1 December 1992

(2) Notwithstanding anything in section 39(2), in calculating the amount of the tax payable by a registered person in one taxable period ending on or before the 30 September 1992, there may be deducted an amount equal to the customs duty and excise duty credit calculated in accordance with subsections (3), (4), (5) or any combination thereof as appropriate.

Amended Decree 28 of 1992, s37 commencement 1 July 1992

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2), where a registered person held, at the close of 30 June 1992, goods which are trading stock of a taxable activity carried on by that registered person and the Chief Executive Officer is satisfied that -

(a) those goods were acquired on or after the 1 July 1991; and
(b) customs duty or excise duty has been paid by that registered person in respect of those goods, the amount of the customs duty and excise duty credit that may be deducted pursuant to subsection (2) shall be the amount of the customs duty or excise duty paid.

Amended Decree 28 of 1992, s37 commencement 1 July 1992

(4) For the purpose of subsection (2), where a registered person held, at the close of 30 June 1992, goods which are trading stock of a taxable activity carried on by that registered person and the Chief Executive Officer is satisfied that -

(i) those goods were acquired on or after the 1 July 1991; and
(ii) that person has records to show the amount of customs or excise duty paid by another person in respect of those goods, the amount of the customs duty and excise duty credit that may be deducted pursuant to subsection (2) shall be the amount of the customs duty or excise duty paid.

Amended Decree 28 of 1992, s37 commencement 1 July 1992

(5) For the purposes of subsection (2), where a registered person held, at the close of the 30 June 1992, goods which are trading stock of a taxable activity carried on by that registered person and the Chief Executive Officer is satisfied that -

(a) those goods were acquired on or after the 1 July 1991; and

(b) customs duty or excise duty has been paid in respect of those goods on the importation or entry for home consumption of those goods, the amount of the customs duty and excise duty that may be deducted pursuant to subsection (2) shall be the lesser of,-

(c) the amount of customs duty or excise duty that would have been correctly payable, if the registered person had imported or entered for home consumption those goods at a cost, inclusive of customs duty and excise duty at a rate of ten percent, equal to the total consideration paid by the registered person in respect of the purchase of those goods; or

(d) the amount of $1,000.

Amended Decree 28 of 1992, s37, commencement 1 July 1992

(6) Subsections (3), (4) and (5) shall only apply in respect of goods which are trading stock, that when supplied on or after the 1 July 1992, will be a taxable supply.

Amended Decree 28 of 1992, s37 commencement 1 July 1992

Section 87 Supplies prior to 1 July 1992

(1) For the purposes of this Section, except as otherwise provided in the Regulations, the expression “time of performance” means, -

(a) in relation to supply of goods,-

(i) where the goods are to be removed, the time of removal:

(ii) where the goods are not to be removed, the time when they are made available to the recipient:

(iii) where the goods (being sent or taken on approval, sale or return, or similar terms) are removed before it is known whether a supply will take place, the time when it becomes certain that the supply has taken place; or

(b) in relation to a supply of services, the time when the services are performed.

Amended Decree 28 of 1992, s38 commencement 1 July 1992
(2) Notwithstanding anything in this Act, for the purposes of subsection (1), goods supplied under an agreement for hire as defined in subsection (3) of section 18 shall be deemed to be a supply of services.

(3) Subject to subsection (4) and notwithstanding anything in section 18, where, and to the extent that, the time of performance of any supply of goods and services -
   (a) is before 1 July 1992, and that supply would, but for this section, be deemed by section 18 to take place on or after 1 July 1992, and the value of that supply is ascertainable, that time of performance shall, for the purposes of this Act, be the time when the supply of those goods and services is deemed to take place:
   (b) is on or after 1 July 1992, and that supply would, but for this section, be deemed by section 18 to take place before 1 July 1992, -
      (i) that time of performance shall, for the purposes of section 15, be the time when the supply of those goods and services is deemed to take place; and
      (ii) the time when the supply of those goods and services is made shall, for the purposes of section 39, be deemed to be the 1 July 1992.

(4) Subject to subsection (5) and notwithstanding anything in subsection (3), where and to the extent that any supply of goods is the construction, major reconstruction, manufacture, or extension of a building or an engineering work by the supplier, and the goods -
   (a) are sold pursuant to any written contract entered into before 1 July 1992; and
   (b) are made available to the recipient on or after 1 July 1992, the value of all work and materials permanently incorporated in or affixed on the site of the building or engineering work pursuant to that contract shall be determined as at the close of 30 June 1992, and -

(c) to the extent that the aggregate of the consideration in money for all supplies in respect of the sale of those goods which, pursuant to section 18 (1) or section 18 (2) (e), took place before 1 July 1992, exceeds that value, the amount of that excess shall be deemed to be consideration in money for a taxable supply by that supplier on 1 July 1992 and charged with tax pursuant to section 15:

(d) to the extent that the value exceeds the aggregate of the consideration in money for all supplies in respect of the sale of those goods which, pursuant to section 18 (1) or section 18 (2) (e), took place before 1 July 1992, the consideration in money for the first supply in respect of the sale of those goods which, pursuant to subsection (1) of section 18 or paragraph (e) of subsection (2) of section 18 of this Act, takes place on or after 1 July 1992 shall be deemed to be reduced by the amount of that excess, provided that any part of the amount of that excess remaining, in any case where the consideration is reduced to nil as a result of the application of this paragraph, shall be carried forward and the consideration for any subsequent supply shall be deemed to be reduced to that extent, and so on.

(5) The provisions of subsection (4) shall only apply to the extent that that value has been determined on or before 1 September 1992 in a manner acceptable to the Chief Executive Officer by an independent qualified valuer or surveyor registered in Fiji or by any other competent valuer that the Chief Executive Officer may, in his discretion, approve.

Amended Decree 28 of 1992, s38 commencement 1 July 1992

Section 87A  Transitional – Supplies prior to 1st January 2011

(1) This section applies to the change in the positive rate of tax on taxable supplies under section 15 of the Value Added Tax Act 1991, as amended.

(2) Subject to this section, where, under section 18 of Value Added Tax Act 1991, as amended, a supply of goods or services takes place after December 31, 2010 and the value of the supply is ascertainable, the supply is subject to a value added tax rate of 15%.

(3) In the case of a contract for the supply of goods or services entered into before 1 January, 2011, unless the contract otherwise provides, there shall be added to the consideration for the supply due under the contract an amount equal to the change in the value added tax imposed by this Act.

(4) If a supply, governed by section 18, subsection 2(c) of the VAT Act 1991, as amended, is a supply of goods successively supplied under an agreement for hire, or a supply of services successively supplied under an agreement or enactment which provides for periodic payments, the 15% rate applies to any payment that becomes due or is received, after December 31, 2010.

(5) Subject to subsection (6) of this section, if construction, major reconstruction, manufacture or extension of a building or civil engineering work is supplied directly under a written agreement or enactment that is described in section 18, subsection 2(e) of the Value Added Tax Act 1991, as amended, and such agreement or enactment –

(a) provides for work to be performed both before and on or after January 1, 2011, and

(b) consideration is to become due and payable in installments or periodically, value added tax is imposed at the 15% rate on each installment or periodic payment in respect of that supply that, becomes due or is received after December 31, 2010, or in respect of which a tax invoice is issued after December 31, 2010.

(6) Notwithstanding subsection (5), value added tax is imposed at the 12.5% rate on the portion of an installment or periodic payment described in subsection (5), that relates –
   (a) to the value of the work performed before January 1, 2011, and
   (b) only to the value of the work under (a) that is determined in a manner approved by the Chief Executive Officer of Inland Revenue and is submitted to the Chief Executive Officer of Inland Revenue by the end of the registered supplier’s first VAT period after December 31, 2010.

(7) If real property supplied under a rental agreement –
   (a) is subject to a positive rate of value added tax, and
   (b) is provided for a period that commences before January 1, 2011 and ends after December 31, 2010, the 15% value added tax rate applies to the portion of the supply that covers the period after December 31, 2010.

(8) Any reference in this section to a change in the rate of value added tax charged on a supply under section 15 of the Value Added Tax Act 1991, as amended, includes a reference to a change from an exemption or zero-rating of the supply to a charge at a positive rate of value added tax.

(9) Starting with supplies made on and after January 1, 2011, all references to a value added tax rate in forms and documents used for value added tax purposes shall be a reference to the 15% value added tax rate imposed by this Act.

(10) The Minister may make regulations for other transitional measures relating to the change in the value added tax rate from 12.5% to 15%.

History
Inserted by Corrigendum issued as Gazette Notice (No.3) on the 12th January 2011 to correct Act No.66 of 2010. Effective from 1st January 2011.

Section 88 Effect of imposition of tax

(1) For the purposes of this section the expression “alteration in the law” means the coming into force of the provision of this Act.

(2) Where -
(a) a supplier has at any time entered into any agreement or contract for the supply of goods and services with a recipient; and
(b) the alteration in the law renders that supply liable to be charged or chargeable with tax, the supplier may, unless the alteration in the law has been taken into account or express provision for the exclusion of the alteration in the law is contained in the agreement or contract, add to the agreed price in the said agreement or contract the amount of that tax, provided that this subsection shall not apply where that agreement or contract is entered into on or after the 1st day of July 1992.

Amended Decree 28 of 1992, s39 commencement 1 July 1992

(3) Where the alteration in the law renders any fee, charge, or other amount, prescribed by, or determined pursuant to, any Act, Decree, or regulation in respect of any supply of goods and services liable to be charged or chargeable with tax, the said fee, charge, or other amount so prescribed or determined shall, unless provision to the contrary is contained in that Act, Decree, or Regulation, be deemed to be increased by that amount of tax charged or chargeable.

Amended Act 22 of 2015, s6 commencement 1 January 2016

(4) Where any Act, Decree, or regulation prescribes or determines either a maximum or minimum amount in respect of any supply of goods and services, that maximum amount or, as the case may be, minimum amount shall, for the purposes of any such Act, Decree, or regulation, be deemed to be increased by the amount of the tax charged or chargeable.

Amended Act 22 of 2015, s6 commencement 1 January 2016

(5) Subsection (3) and (4) shall not apply to any fee, charge, or other amount prescribed or determined which is required to be paid by any public authority to any other person by virtue of that Act, Decree, or regulation.

Amended Act 22 of 2015, s6 commencement 1 January 2016

(6) Where any supply is or becomes charged with tax pursuant to this Act, the amount of any increase in consideration in respect of that supply attributable to the tax charged on that supply shall be recoverable by the supplier from the recipient of the taxable supply.

(7) Where there is an increase or decrease in the percentage of VAT under this Act, such increase in the percentage of Vat shall apply in respect of any VAT inclusive fee, charge or other amount prescribed under any other written law.
PART XV - AMENDMENTS AND REPEALS

Section 89 Amendments and Repeals

For the purpose of this Act, any existing Acts, laws, rules, regulations, or other related legal instructions currently enforced or to be enforced in the State which directly contravene provisions of this Act, may for all intents and purpose, and for clarity, as far as those provisions are concerned, in respect of payment of tax in Fiji, become null and void and this Act shall supersede every other Act, Acts, law, rule, regulation, or other legal instruction, instrument or document.
SCHEDULES

SCHEDULE 1
(Section 2)

1. Schedule 4 of the Value Added Tax (Tourist VAT Refund Scheme) 2010 is added.

Purpose

2. The purpose of this Schedule is to provide retailers and tourists with certainty about the way the Chief Executive Officer will apply this schedule in making Fiji an attractive shopping destination for tourists.

Definitions of this Part

3. In this Schedule unless the context otherwise requires-

   “application form for refund” means the prescribed form⁷ as approved by the Chief Executive Officer under this scheme;

   “approved registered person” means the retailer as approved by the Chief Executive Officer to be licensed under the Tourist VAT Refund Scheme;

   “cruise ship” means a ship on an international voyage carrying passengers participating in a group programme and accommodated on board, for the purpose of making scheduled tourist visits at one or more different ports, and which during the voyage does not normally-

   (a) embark or disembark any other passengers
   (b) load or discharge any cargo

   “financial institutions” means a financial institution licensed under the Banking Act 1995 approved by the Chief Executive Officer to operate under the Tourist VAT Refund Scheme;

   “goods” means the goods purchased from the approved registered person in respect of which an application form for a refund under the scheme has been or is to be submitted to the proper officer of Customs;

   “proper officer of Customs” means any officer of Customs acting in the fulfillment of his duties under this Act or Customs Act 1986, whether such duties are assigned to him specially or generally or expressly or by implication;

   “scheme” means the Tourist VAT Refund Scheme;

“student’s permit” means a student’s permit issued by the Director of Immigration under the Immigration Act, 2003; and “tourist” means an individual who is eligible to receive a refund of tax under Provision 6.

Application for a license in VAT Refund Scheme

4. (1) Any registered tax and customs compliant⁸ person may apply in writing to the Chief Executive Officer for an operating licence under the scheme.

(2) Such licence shall be issued in form prescribed by the Chief Executive Officer ⁹.

(3) An approved licence person shall pay an annual licence fee of $2,500 (inclusive of VAT).

(4) An approved licensed person shall abide by all the requirements as approved and prescribed by the Chief Executive Officer for efficient administration of the scheme.¹⁰

(5) A licence approved under this paragraph shall expire on 31 December in each year.

(6) The annual licence fee payable under paragraph (3) must be paid by 7 January in any year in which such licence was first granted.

(7) The Comptroller may refuse to allow any transaction to take place in respect of which the fee may be due, until such fee has been paid.

(8) Where a new licence for a VAT refund scheme is issued under this paragraph during the second, third or fourth quarter of any year, the fee payable shall be respectively three-quarters, one-half or one quarter of the annual fee.

Goods to which VAT refund applies

5. (1) The refund applies to goods, the supply of which is a taxable supply, except any of the following goods-

(a) goods that have been partly consumed at the time at which the tourist leaves Fiji;

(b) goods exported for business or commercial purposes; and

(c) goods that will be exported by freight as unaccompanied baggage.

Eligibility for tourist VAT refund

6.– (1) Subject to sub-section (2) a tourist is eligible to receive a refund of the tax on the goods from the financial institution under the scheme if he is-

(a) a resident of a country other than Fiji;

(b) a holder of a foreign passport;

(c) 13 years of age or above at the date of purchase of the goods; and

(d) if employed, is employed in a country other than Fiji. Tourists that are unemployed or retirees are eligible subject to subparagraphs (a) to (c).

(2) The holder of a student’s permit shall only be eligible to receive a refund under paragraph (a) if he purchases the goods less than 4 months before the expiry of the student permit.

Conditions for tourist VAT refund scheme

7. A tourist shall only be entitled to the refund of the tax under the scheme if he or she satisfies the following conditions-

(a) the goods must have been purchased from an approved licensed person;

(b) the goods must be purchased no earlier than 2 months before the goods are taken out of Fiji to another country;

(c) the tourist makes and duly completes, at the time of the purchase of the goods to which the refund relates, an application for a refund of the tax on such application Form

(d) the application form for refund shall be supported by tax invoices showing the amount (including the amount of VAT) paid by the tourist for the goods;

(e) if goods have been purchased from an approved registered person or from different approved registered persons on each trip to Fiji, the total purchase price paid by the tourist must be at least $500(including VAT);

(f) the goods are taken out of Fiji to another country as the tourist’s hand or accompanied luggage on the same flight or cruise ship voyage on which he is travelling;

(g) the tourist shall submit the application form for refund together with the goods and the supporting tax invoices to the proper officer of customs at the Tourist VAT Refund Counter at the Nadi International Airport, Nausori International Airport, Lautoka Wharf or Suva Wharf, as the case may be, for inspection and endorsement of the application form before the goods are checked in or brought into the aircraft or cruise ship as hand luggage;

(h) the tourist shall furnish such information and documents as the proper officer of Customs may require for the purpose of ascertaining whether the tourist will depart from Fiji in accordance with paragraph (i);

(i) the tourist shall depart from Fiji within 4 hours from the time of endorsement of the application form for refund by the proper officer of Customs;

(j) the goods shall not be taken out of the premises of the Nadi International Airport Departure Check-in Counter or the Suva Wharf, as the case may be, after the application form has been endorsed by the proper officer of Customs; and

---

11 Amended by Act No.15 of 2013. Effective from 10th May, 2013
12 Amended by Act No.15 of 2013. Effective from 10th May, 2013
(k) after the application form for refund has been endorsed, the tourist shall not part with possession of the goods or give it to any other person except to the counter staff for checking in.

Payment authority and manner of payment

8. (1) If a proper officer of Customs is satisfied that-
(a) a tourist complies with Paragraph 6 at the officer’s request; and
(b) that the tourist is entitled to be paid an amount under section 70B; then the proper officer must give the tourist the refund that includes:
   (i) information identifying the tourist;
   (ii) the amount of refund to which the tourist is entitled;
   (iii) the name and signature of the proper officer; and
   (iv) customs certification stamp.

(2) The tourist must produce the refund form to the financial institution that is located at the Nadi International Airport or Suva Wharf. The financial institution shall pay the tourist the entitled amount in cash and in Fijian currency on the same trip\(^{13}\) before the tourist leaves Fiji.

(3) No refund shall be issued by the financial institution after the tourist has left Fiji\(^ {14}\).

Offences relating to tourist VAT refund

9.—(1) Any person who receives any goods from a tourist after the application form in respect of such goods has been submitted to the proper officer of Customs at the Tourist VAT Refund Counter at the Nadi International Airport or Suva Wharf, as the case may be, shall be guilty of an offence and is liable for a fine not exceeding $5,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or to both a fine and imprisonment.

Amended LN 1 of 2000, reg 3, commencement 1 January 2000

PART 2 – TAX INVOICES

Regulation 3 Tax invoice particulars

Subject to regulation 5 and 7, a tax invoice shall contain the following particulars:

(a) the words “tax invoice” in a prominent place;
(b) the name, address and taxpayer identification number of the supplier;
(c) the name and address of the recipient;
(d) an individual serialised number and the date upon which the tax invoice was issued;
(e) a description of the goods and services supplied;
(f) the quantity or volume of the goods and services supplied, and
(g) the total amount of the tax charged, the consideration, excluding tax, and the consideration, inclusive of tax for that supply.

Regulation 4 Issuing tax invoice

Where a registered person issues a tax invoice containing the particulars prescribed in regulation 3 and specifies thereon any goods and services which are subject of an exempt or zero-rated supply, he shall distinguish on the tax invoice between the goods and services which are the subject of an exempt or zero-rated supply and state separately the gross total amount payable in respect of each.

Regulation 5 Consideration

(4) Notwithstanding anything in regulation 3, where the consideration in money for a supply does not exceed $100 or such amount as the Minister may from time to time by Legal Notice declare or the supply is made by a retailer, a tax invoice shall contain the particulars in regulation 3 or the following particulars -

(a) the word “tax invoice” in a prominent place;
(b) the name and taxpayer identification number of the supplier;
(c) the date upon which the tax invoice was issued;
(d) a description of the goods and services supplied, and
(e) the consideration for the supply and a statement that it includes a charge in respect of tax.

Regulation 6  Supplies subject to tax invoice

Where a registered person provides a tax invoice in accordance with regulation 5, the tax invoice shall include only particulars of supplies which are subject to tax and shall not contain any reference to any exempt or zero-rated supply.

History
Regulation (7) amended by inserting the phrase “unless requested by the recipient” between the words “not” and “be”.
[Legal Notice No 68 of 1992, effective 1 July 1992]

Regulation 7  Suppliers discretion

Notwithstanding any other regulation, a supplier shall not unless requested by the recipient be required to provide a tax invoice if the consideration in money for a supply does not exceed ten dollars or such amount as the Minister may from time to time, by Legal Notice declare.

History
Regulation (8) amended by inserting the word “a” between the words “be” and “tax invoice”
[Legal Notice No. 87 of 2002 - Rectification of Errors (No. 2 ) Order 2002]

Regulation 8  Recipient document

Where a recipient, being a registered person, creates a document containing the particulars specified in regulation 3 and purporting to be a tax invoice in respect of a taxable supply of goods and services made to the recipient by a supplier, being a registered person, that document shall be deemed to be a tax invoice issued by the supplier under section 41 (1) of the Act where –

(a) the Chief Executive Officer of Fiji Revenue and Customs Service has granted prior approval for the issue of such documents by a recipient in relation to the taxable supplies to which the documents relate; and

(b) the supplier and the recipient agree that the supplier shall not issue a tax invoice in respect of any taxable supply to which this regulation applies; and

(c) the document is provided to the supplier and a copy is retained by the recipient; and
(d) the words “buyer created tax invoice – Fiji Revenue and Customs Service approved” are contained on that document, provided that where a tax invoice is issued pursuant to this regulation any tax invoice issued by the supplier in respect of that taxable supply shall be deemed not to be a tax invoice for the purposes of the Act,

Regulation 9 Approval

Where approval has been granted by the Chief Executive Officer of Fiji Revenue and Customs Service to issue tax invoices pursuant to regulation 8, that approval may be withdrawn at any time where the Chief Executive Officer of Fiji Revenue and Customs Service is satisfied that the conditions of that approval have not been complied with.

Regulation 10 Suppliers invoice

Where a registered person receives relevant services to which Section 21 of this Act applies, the relevant invoice or other documentation from the person supplying the service shall serve the same purpose as a tax invoice.
PART 3– CREDIT AND DEBIT NOTES PARTICULARS

Regulation 11

A credit note or, as the case may be, a debit note shall contain the following particulars:

(a) the word “credit note” or, as the case may be, “debit note” in a prominent place;
(b) the name and taxpayer identification number of the registered person;
(c) the name and address of the recipient;
(d) the date on which the credit or debit note was issued;
(e) the amount shown on the tax invoice as being in respect of tax, the adjusted amount, and the amount of the credit or, as the case may be, debit, that is necessary to make the adjustment;

Regulation 12

Recipient

Where a recipient, being a registered person, creates a document containing the particulars specified in regulation 11 and purporting to be a credit note or, as the case may be, a debit note in respect of a supply of goods and services made to the recipient by a supplier, being a registered person, that document shall be deemed to be a credit note or, as the case may be, a debit note provided by the supplier under section 42 (2) of the Act where -
(a) the Chief Executive Officer of Fiji Revenue and Customs Service has granted prior approval for the issue of such documents by a recipient in relation to the supplies to which the documents relate; and

(b) the supplier and the recipient agree that the supplier shall not issue a credit note or, as the case may be, a debit note in respect of any supply to which this regulation applies; and

(c) a copy of any such document is provided to the supplier and another copy is retained by the recipient; and

(d) the words “buyer created credit note –Fiji Revenue and Customs Service approved” or, as the case may be, “buyer created debit note –Fiji Revenue and Customs Service approved” are contained on that document, provided that where a credit note or, as the case may be, a debit note issued pursuant to section 42 (2) of the Act, any credit note or, as the case may be, debit note issued by the supplier in respect of that supply shall be deemed not to be a credit note or, as the case may be, a debit note for the purposes of the Act.

PART 4 – MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS RELATING TO TAX INVOICES AND CREDIT AND DEBIT NOTES

Regulation 13

Taxable supply

Where a supply is a taxable supply to which Section 30 (1) of the Act applies, that agent, being a registered person, may, notwithstanding anything in the Act, issue a tax invoice or a credit note or a debit note in relation to that supply as if that agent had made a taxable supply, and to the extent that that tax invoice or credit note or debit note relates to that supply, that principal shall not also issue, as the case may be, a tax invoice or a credit note or a debit note.

Regulation 14

Agents

Where a taxable supply of goods and services is made to an agent in terms of Section 30 (2) of the Act, the agent may request that that agent be issued with a tax invoice and the registered person shall issue a tax invoice or a credit note or a debit note as if the supply were made to that agent.

Regulation 18 Criteria for Determining Taxable Activities

Subject to regulation (17) and without limiting the generality of section 4(1) of the Act, a non-profit body shall be carrying on a taxable activity, if carried on continuously and regularly, in respect of the supply of goods and services of the following kind:

(a) the right of admission or membership of a club association, or like body by way of a subscription or a similar fee and includes affiliation fees;
(b) the admission, for a consideration, of persons to any premises;
(c) the leasing or hiring of any real or personal property;
(d) the operation of a commercial oriented venture that involves the supply of goods and services for a consideration;
(e) the supply of advertising services by way of a fee or sponsorship, and
(f) the right to participate in any event carried on or organised by that non-profit body, for a fee or charge.

Regulation 19 Taxable Activities

Where the Chief Executive Officer of Fiji Revenue and Customs Service is of the opinion that a non-profit body is carrying on one or more taxable activities, the Chief Executive Officer of Fiji Revenue and Customs Service may, notwithstanding that Section 22 of the Act provides for the registration of all the taxable activities carried on by a person, direct that the registration shall only apply in respect of any identifiable separate activity or activities.

PART 1 – PRELIMINARY

Rule 1
Short Title

These Rules may be cited as the Value Added Tax Regulations 1991.

Rule 2
Interpretation

In these Rules:
“Registrar” means the Registrar of the Tribunal;
“the Act” means the Value Added Tax Act;
“the Tribunal” means the Value Added Tax Tribunal as for the time being constituted under section 51.

Rule 3
Registrar of the Tribunal

The Chief Registrar of the High Court of Fiji shall be the Registrar of the Tribunal.

Rule 4
Office of the Tribunal

The office of the Tribunal shall be at the High Court Registry at Suva.

Rule 5
Place of Sittings

The Tribunal may sit for the hearing of an appeal, or for the hearing of any interlocutory application incidental to an appeal, at any place within Fiji which the Tribunal from time to time or at any time may deem convenient for the sitting.

Rule 6
Notice of Appeal

(1) Every appeal to the Tribunal shall be brought by notice of motion (in these Rules referred to as “the notice of appeal”) in the form appearing in the Schedule 1.

(2) The notice of appeal shall state clearly and concisely the grounds of the appeal. The notice shall be signed by the appellant or his agent or barrister and solicitor and shall state therein an address for service in Fiji to or at which notices, process, and other documents and written communications relating to the appeal may be sent by registered post or left for the appellant. Service by post or delivery as aforesaid shall be deemed to be good service on the appellant.

(3) The original notice of appeal and one copy thereof shall be filed in the office of the Tribunal within the time notified to the appellant by the Chief Executive Officer under section 50(5) of the Act as the time within which the appellant may exercise the right of appeal to the Tribunal.
(4) The appellant shall cause a copy of the notice of appeal to be served upon the Chief Executive Officer of the Fiji Revenue and Customs Service at his or her office at Suva, either personally or by registered post, within the time referred to in paragraph (3).

Amended LN 99 of 2016, reg 295, commencement 1 December 2016

Rule 7
Entry of appeal and direction for hearing

(1) Upon the filing of the notice of appeal the Registrar shall cause the appeal to be entered in the books of the Tribunal and shall obtain a direction by the person for the time being appointed to hold the Tribunal as to the day, time and place to be appointed for the hearing of the appeal.

(2) Unless, on the application of the appellant, it is otherwise directed, the place of the hearing of the appeal shall be at Suva. An appellant may apply at any time to the person for the time being appointed to hold the Tribunal for a direction that the appeal be entered for hearing at any place other than at Suva or, if the appeal has been entered for hearing at Suva, to change the place of hearing. Any such application may be made by motion on not less than 4 days notice to the Chief Executive Officer of the Fiji Revenue and Customs Service.

Amended LN 99 of 2016, reg 295, commencement 1 December 2016

Rule 8
Notice of hearing of appeal

The Registrar shall give not less than 28 days’ notice in writing (in these Rules referred to as “the notice of hearing”) to the appellant and to the Chief Executive Officer of Fiji Revenue and Customs Service of the day, time and place appointed for the hearing of the appeal.

Amended LN 99 of 2016, reg 295, commencement 1 December 2016

Rule 9
Service

Service of the notice of hearing on the Chief Executive Officer of the Fiji Revenue and Customs Service may be effected by sending a copy of the notice by registered post to him or her at his office at Suva, or by leaving a copy of the notice at that office. Service on the appellant may be effected in accordance with paragraph (2) of Rule 6.

Amended LN 99 of 2016, reg 295, commencement 1 December 2016

Rule 10
Amendment of notice of appeal

A notice of appeal may be amended at any time by or with the leave of the Tribunal on such terms and conditions as the Tribunal may think just.
Rule 11
Attendance of witness under subpoena

At the request of the appellant or the Chief Executive Officer of the Fiji Revenue and Customs Service or by the direction of the Tribunal itself, a subpoena and testificandum or ducus tecum may be issued requiring any person to attend to give evidence or to produce documents in connection with the appeal.

Rule 12
Hearing of the appeal

(1) On the day fixed for the hearing of the appeal or on any other day to which the hearing may be adjourned, the appellant, or his agent or barrister and solicitor, shall be heard in support of the appeal.

(2) The Tribunal shall then, if it does not dismiss the appeal at once, hear the Chief Executive Officer or his officer or barrister and solicitor, and in such case the appellant shall have the right of reply.

(3) Subject to the provisions of the Act or to these Rules, the ordinary practice and the Rules of the High Court shall apply, with necessary modifications in relation to an appeal under these Rules.

Rule 13
Fees of Tribunal

(1) The fees set out in the Schedule 2 shall be charged and paid in respect of the matters therein specified.

(2) The fees to be charged and paid in respect of matters not specified in the said Schedule shall be the fees payable in respect of similar matters in civil proceedings in the High Court, provided that no fees shall be charged or be payable by the Chief Executive Officer of Fiji Revenue and Customs Service in relation to any act, application or proceedings by him or her in relation to an appeal.

Amended LN 99 of 2016, reg 295, commencement 1 December 2016

Rule 14
Costs

(1) Subject to the provisions of section 57, the costs of an incidental to an appeal shall be in the discretion of the Tribunal but, unless the Tribunal in any particular case for good reason shall think fit otherwise to order, legal practitioners’ costs shall not exceed the maximum allowance prescribed by the scale of costs set out in Appendix 4 of the High Court Rules.

(2) When the Tribunal directs that the cost, or any part of the costs, of an appeal be paid by the appellant or by the State, the Tribunal may specify the amount of such costs to be paid or may direct that the costs be taxed by the Registrar.
(3) The Tribunal may allow as costs of an appeal the allowances and expenses of witnesses attending the hearing of the appeal in accordance with the Rules for the time being in force in the High Court of Fiji in relation to allowances and expenses of witnesses attending at trials before the High Court, and for that purpose any reference in such Rules to the Chief Registrar of the High Court, shall be deemed to be a reference to the Registrar of the Tribunal.

(4) The Tribunal may allow such other necessary costs or allowances as may seem to the Tribunal to be fair and reasonable.
Take notice that the Value Added Tax Tribunal will be moved by the above-named appellant upon such day and time at such place as may be appointed for the sitting of the Tribunal for an order that the decision of the Chief Executive Officer of Fiji Revenue and Customs Service dated the day of 20 , disallowing the objection by the appellant to the following assessment(s):

\[(state\ particular\ of\ assessment(s)\ appealed\ against)\] be revised or set aside and the State do pay to the appellant the costs of his appeal.

And further take notice that the grounds of this appeal are as follows:

(Set out clearly and concisely the grounds of appeal which, save with the leave of the Tribunal, shall be the reasons stated in the objection to the assessment)

Dated this day of 20

Signature of appellant, or his or her agent, or barrister and solicitor

Address for service:

To the Chief Executive Officer of Fiji Revenue and Customs Service, Suva

*The appellant must ensure that the address for service given is adequate to ensure that notices, etc., posted to or left at that address will reach him without delay.
