CUSTOMS ACT 1986

Customs (Diplomatic Missions and International Organisations) (Refund) Regulations 2019

IN exercise of the powers conferred on me by section 191 of the Customs Act 1986, I hereby make these Regulations—

Short title and commencement

1.—(1) These Regulations may be cited as the Customs (Diplomatic Missions and International Organisations) (Refund) Regulations 2019.

(2) These Regulations come into force on the date of publication in the Gazette.

Interpretation

2. In these Regulations, unless the context otherwise requires—

“Act” means the Diplomatic Missions and International Organisations Act 2016;

“exemption period” means the period during which a mission, international organisation or international body is exempt from any duty;

“international body” has the meaning given in section 2 of the Act;

“international organisation” has the meaning given in section 2 of the Act; and

“mission” has the meaning given in section 2 of the Act.

Application for refund

3.—(1) Any mission, international organisation or international body that is exempt from any duty in accordance with section 3 of the Act may apply to the Comptroller for a refund of the payment of the duty if the mission, international organisation or international body had paid for the duty during the exemption period.

(2) An application for a refund must—

- (a) be made in the form approved by the CEO;
- (b) specify the date of customs entry to which the application relates;
- (c) be accompanied by a refund schedule as prescribed in the Schedule;
- (d) be supported by an invoice indicating the amount of duty paid by the mission, international organisation or international body; and
- (e) be accompanied by any other document or information as required by the CEO.

(3) The mission, international organisation or international body which made an application for a refund may, at any time, amend the application with the amendments clearly identified.

(4) The CEO may reject an application for a refund if the application fails to comply with this regulation.

Made this 31st day of July 2019.

A. SAYED-KHAIYUM
Attorney-General and Minister for Economy
