[Section 3] Instruments on which duty shall be charged

Subject to the exemptions and provisions as to conditional exemptions contained in the Schedule, there shall be raised, levied, collected and paid unto the State for the public uses of Fiji upon and in respect of the several instruments specified in the column of Part 1 of the Schedule headed “Nature of Instrument” the several duties specified in the column of that Part of the Schedule headed “Amount of Duty”.

[Section 4] Power to amend exemptions (Repealed)

[Section 4A] Waiver or refund of stamp duty

(1) Without prejudice to section 3, the Chief Executive Officer may, subject to such conditions as he or she considers necessary, waive or refund the whole or any part of any stamp duty payable in respect of any instrument provided that the waiver or refund does not exceed $25,000.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), if the waiver or refund exceeds $25,000, the Minister may, subject to such conditions as he or she considers necessary, waive or refund the whole or any part of any stamp duty payable in respect of that instrument.

[Section 5] Duties and other moneys recoverable by action

(1) All duties and other moneys payable under this Act shall, from and after the day on which the same become due and payable, be deemed to be debts due to the State from every person liable to the payment of the same and may be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(2) Every person who, with respect to any instrument of the nature mentioned in the Schedule, comes within the description specified in the column thereof headed “persons primarily liable” is personally liable to the State for the payment of the duty so chargeable on such instrument immediately upon the execution thereof.

(3) Nothing herein shall be deemed to exonerate any other person from any liability imposed upon him or her by or under this Act or to exempt any instrument from any duty or disability to which it is liable under this Act.
(4) Nothing in this Act shall be deemed to interfere with or control the operation of any Act whereby any instruments are exempted from stamp duty.
PART 2 ADMINISTRATION
(Sections 6-27)

[Section 6]  Commissioner
There shall be a Commissioner of Stamp Duties who shall be charged with the administration of this Act and the control of all matters and duties imposed upon him or her by this Act.
[s 6 subst Decree 13 of 2011 s 3, effective 1 April 2011]

[Section 7]  Appointment of Deputy Commissioner and other officers
The Commissioner Stamp Duties shall appoint a Deputy Commissioner of Stamp Duties or other officers for the administration of the Act.
[s 7 subst Decree 13 of 2011 s 4, effective 1 April 2011]

[Section 8]  Regulations
The Minister may, from time to time, make regulations (not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act) for the due administration of this Act and for the conduct of all persons concerned in such administration and generally for carrying this Act into effect.
[s 8 am LN 112 of 1970 O 131, effective 8 October 1970]

[Section 9]  Commissioner’s seal. Effect thereof
There shall be a die called the Commissioner’s seal which may be impressed on any instrument to denote that all duty to which any such instrument is liable has been paid and any instrument which is so impressed with the Commissioner’s seal shall be deemed to be duly stamped for all purposes whatsoever.

[Section 10]  One form of stamp may be used for all purposes
(1) All impressed stamps shall be created and impressed only at the Service.
[subs (1) am Decree 13 of 2011 s 2, effective 1 April 2011; Act 38 of 2017 s 7, effective 1 August 2017]

(2) One form of adhesive stamp of various denominations according to the money-value of each may be used either as postage labels or for any other purpose for which adhesive stamps are used or permitted to be used.

(3) This provision shall not be deemed to affect the operation of section 51.

[Section 11]  Die may be discontinued
Where the Commissioner determines to discontinue the use of any die and to provide a new die in lieu thereof and gives public notice thereof in the Gazette, then, from and after a day to be fixed in the notice (not being within 3 months after the same is so published), the new die shall be the only lawful die for denoting the duty chargeable in any case in which the discontinued die would have been used, and every instrument bearing date after the day so named and stamped with the discontinued die shall be deemed to be not duly stamped. The expression “instrument” in this section includes any postal packet as defined by the Post Office Act 1936 and the date borne by an instrument shall, in the case of a postal packet, be the date of posting thereof.
[s 11 am Ordinance 25 of 1937 s 2, 1937]

[Section 12] Licence to sell stamps
For the convenience of the public and when deemed expedient, the Commissioner may, with the authority of the Minister, grant a licence without fee to any person to sell such stamps as may be specified in the licence. The form of licence shall be such as may from time to time be approved by the Minister. Any licence granted under this section may be cancelled at any time.
[s 12 subst Ordinance 3 of 1931 s 2, 1931; am LN 112 of 1970 O 131, effective 8 October 1970]

[Section 13] Discount
Upon the sale of stamps to any licensed vendor such discount may be allowed as the Minister may from time to time direct.
[s 13 am LN 112 of 1970 O 131, effective 8 October 1970]

[Section 14] Allowance for spoiled stamps
The Commissioner may, in his or her discretion, subject to any regulations made under this Act, make allowance for stamps inadvertently and undesignedly spoiled, obliterated or rendered unfit for the purpose intended by giving in exchange other stamps of the same value or by giving the owner thereof an order on the Treasury for the same amount.

[Section 15] Search warrants for detection of forged dies
(1) On information given before any Magistrate on oath that there is just cause to suspect any person of being guilty of any offence relating to stamps, such Magistrate may, by warrant under his or her hand, cause every dwelling-house, room, workshop, outhouse or other building or place belonging to or occupied by the suspected person or where or in relation to which he or she is suspected of being or having been in any way engaged or concerned in the commission of any such offence or of secreting any forged die or stamp or any machinery, implement or utensils applicable to the commission of any such offence to be searched.

(2) If, on such search, any of the said several matters or things are found, the same may be seized and carried away in order that they may be produced in evidence against any offender and shall afterwards, whether produced in evidence or not, by order of the court or Judge before whom such offender is tried or, in case there is no such trial, by order of some Magistrate, be delivered over to the Commissioner to be defaced or destroyed.

[Section 16] Further proceedings for the detection of forged stamps
(1) Upon information given to a Magistrate that there is reasonable cause to suspect that any person being or having been licensed to deal in stamps has in possession any forged stamps, such Magistrate may, by warrant under his or her hand, authorise any police officer to enter between the hours of 9 in the morning and 7 in the evening into any dwelling-house, room, shop, warehouse, outhouse or other building of or belonging to or occupied by any such suspected person.

(2) If, on demand of admittance and notice of such warrant, the door of any such building or any inner door thereof is not opened, then such police officer may break open the same respectively and search for and seize any stamps that may be found in any such place as aforesaid or elsewhere in the custody or possession of such suspected person.

[Section 17] Resisting, obstructing or refusing to assist

Every person is liable to a fine not exceeding $25,000 who—

a) refuses to permit any search or seizure to be made as aforesaid; or

b) assaults, opposes, molests or obstructs any police officer employed or acting in the execution or under the authority of any such warrant or aiding or assisting in the execution thereof.

[s 17 am Act 30 of 2017 s 3, effective 1 August 2017]

[Section 18] Mode of proceeding when stamps are seized

(1) The police officer who is entrusted with the execution of any such warrant as aforesaid shall, if required, give to the person in whose custody or possession any stamps are found and seized an acknowledgement of the number, particulars and amount of the stamps so seized and shall permit such last mentioned person or any person employed by him or her to mark such stamps before the removal thereof.

(2) The person in whose custody or possession any stamps are so found and seized shall be entitled to claim and receive in money the amount of such of the stamps so seized as may be found to be genuine (deducting therefrom the proper discount) or, if the Commissioner thinks fit, such of the stamps so seized as may be found to be genuine may be returned to the person from whose custody or possession the same have been taken.

[Section 19] Detection of stamps stolen or obtained fraudulently

(1) Any Magistrate may, on reasonable suspicion that any stamps have been stolen or fraudulently obtained, issue his or her warrant for the seizure thereof and for apprehending and bringing before himself or herself or any other Magistrate the person in whose possession or custody such stamps may be found to be dealt with according to law.

(2) If such person omits or refuses to account for the possession of such stamps or is unable satisfactorily to account for the possession thereof or if it does not appear that the same were purchased by him or her at a stamp office or from some person duly licensed or authorised to deal in stamps, such stamps shall be forfeited to the State and shall be by such Magistrate delivered over to the Commissioner, and such stamps shall be kept by the Commissioner for the space of 6 months and shall afterwards be cancelled and destroyed.

[subs (2) am Act 31 of 2016 s 198, effective 1 December 2016]
(3) If, at any time within such 6 months, any person makes out to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that any such stamps were stolen or otherwise fraudulently obtained from him or her and were purchased by him or her at a stamp office or from some person duly licenced or authorised to deal in stamps, such stamps may be delivered up to him or her.

[Section 20]  Defacement of adhesive stamps

Every person who, by any writing, in any manner defaces any adhesive stamp before it is used shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding $25,000, provided that any person may, with the express sanction of the Commissioner and in such manner as he or she prescribes, write upon an adhesive stamp before it is used for the purpose of identifying the same.

[s 20 am Act 14 of 1975 s 49, effective 30 May 1975; Act 30 of 2017 s 4, effective 1 August 2017]

[Section 21]  Penalty for frauds in relation to adhesive stamps or to stamp duty

(1) If any person—

  a) fraudulently removes or causes to be removed from any instrument any adhesive stamp or affixes to any other instrument or uses for any postal purpose any adhesive stamp which has been so removed with the intent that the stamp may be used again; or
  b) sells or offers for sale or utters any adhesive stamp which has been so removed or utters any instrument having thereon any adhesive stamp which has to his or her knowledge been so removed as aforesaid, he or she shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding $25,000 over and above any other penalty to which he or she may be liable.

[sub s (1) am Act 14 of 1975 s 49, effective 30 May 1975; Act 30 of 2017 s 5, effective 1 August 2017]

(2) The expression “instrument” in this section includes any postal article as defined by the Post Office Act 1936 and the cover of any postal article.

[s 21 subst Ordinance 3 of 1931 s 3, 1931]

[Section 22]  Felonies

Any person who is guilty of doing or causing or procuring to be done or knowingly aiding, abetting or assisting in doing any of the acts following, that is to say—

  a) fraudulently removing from any material any stamp with the intent that any use should be made of such stamp or of any part thereof;
  b) fraudulently mutilating any stamp with intent that any use should be made of any part of such stamp;
  c) fraudulently fixing upon any material or upon any stamp any stamp or part of a stamp which, whether fraudulently or not, has been removed from any other material or from any other stamp;
d) fraudulently erasing or otherwise either really or apparently removing from any stamped material any name, sum, date or other matter or thing whatsoever thereon written with the intent that any use should be made of the stamp upon such material;

e) knowingly and without lawful excuse, the proof of which lawful excuse lies on the person accused, having in possession any stamp or part of a stamp which has been fraudulently mutilated or any stamped material out of which any name, sum, date or other matter or thing has been fraudulently erased or otherwise either really or apparently removed; or

f) fraudulently impressing any genuine stamp upon any material, is guilty of felony and, upon being convicted, shall be liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 10 years.

[Section 23] Imprisonment in default of payment of fine

In cases in which a money penalty without any alternative of imprisonment is imposed by this Act, the Magistrate may, in default of payment of the penalty inflicted, inflict punishment of imprisonment not exceeding 10 years, provided always that the Minister may, at his or her discretion, stay or compound proceedings for any penalty and may reward any person who informs of any offence against this Act or assists in the recovery of any penalty.

[Section 24] Affidavits and declarations

(1) Any oath, affidavit or declaration to be taken or made in pursuance or for the purposes of this Act may be made before the Commissioner or any Magistrate or any commissioner of oaths or, at any place out of Fiji, before any person duly authorised to administer oaths thereat.

(2) Every person who knowingly and wilfully makes a false oath or declaration concerning any matter in this Act commits perjury.

[Section 25] Inquiries by Commissioner

(1) For the purpose of obtaining information respecting the liability of any person in respect of duty under this Act or respecting the entitlement of any person the exemption or conditional exemption of any instrument in respect of such duty, the Commissioner may summon before him or her and examine any person whom the Commissioner deems capable of giving information as aforesaid.

(2) On an inquiry under this section, the Commissioner shall be deemed to be vested with all the powers that may be conferred on Commissioners by the Commissions of Inquiry Act 1946, and the provisions of that Act shall apply accordingly.
[Section 26] Production of instrument for stamping
If the Commissioner or a deputy commissioner has reason to believe that any instrument chargeable with duty has been executed and has not been presented for stamping, he or she may, by notice in writing under his or her hand, require any person whom he or she believes to be liable for the payment of duty on that instrument forthwith to present the same for stamping, and any person upon whom such notice is served who fails without reasonable cause (the proof whereof shall lie on him or her) to comply with the requirements of such notice shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding $25,000.
[s 26 am Act 30 of 2017 s 8, effective 1 August 2017]

[Section 27] Chief Accountant to pay moneys
The Chief Accountant may, without further appropriation, issue and pay out of the Consolidated Fund any moneys payable to any person under the provisions of this Act.
[Section 27A] Avoidance of stamp duty
If there are reasonable grounds for the Chief Executive Officer to believe that any dealings have the direct or indirect effect of—

a) altering the incidence of any stamp duty that is payable or suffered by, or which would otherwise have been payable or suffered by any person;
b) relieving any person from any liability that has arisen or which would otherwise have arisen to pay stamp duty or file a stamp duty return;
c) evading or avoiding any liability which is imposed or would otherwise have been imposed on any person under this Act; or
d) hindering or preventing the operation of this Act in any respect, the Chief Executive Officer may, without prejudice to such validity as it may have in any other respect or for any other purpose, disregard or vary the dealings and make such assessments as the Chief Executive Officer considers just and proper in the circumstances.

PART 3 DUTIES ON INSTRUMENTS
(Sections 28-98)
DIVISION 1 GENERAL PROVISIONS
(Sections 28-51)

[Section 28] How instruments are to be written and stamped
(1) Every instrument written on stamped material is to be written in such manner, and every instrument partly or wholly written before being stamped is to be so stamped, that the stamp may appear on the face of the instrument and cannot be used for or applied to any other instrument written on the same piece of material.
(2) If more than one instrument is written on the same piece of material, every one of such instruments is to be separately and distinctly stamped with the duty with which it is chargeable.

[Section 29] Instruments to be separately charged with duty in certain cases
(1) Except where express provision to the contrary is made by this or any other Act, an instrument containing or relating to several distinct matters is to be separately and distinctly charged with duty in respect of each of such matters as if each matter were expressed in a separate instrument.
(2) An instrument made for more than one consideration is to be charged with duty in respect of each such consideration according to the rate with which each is chargeable as though each consideration were expressed in a separate instrument.

[Section 30] Use of appropriated stamps
(1) A stamp which, by any word or words on the face of it, is appropriated to any particular description of instrument is not to be used or available for any instrument of any other description.
(2) An instrument falling under the particular description to which any stamp is so appropriated as aforesaid is not to be deemed duly stamped unless it is stamped with the stamp so appropriated.

[Section 31] Circumstances affecting duty to be set forth in instruments
(1) All the facts and circumstances affecting the liability of any instrument to ad valorem duty or the amount of the ad valorem duty with which it is chargeable are to be fully and truly set forth in such instrument.
(2) This provision shall not prevent the Commissioner exercising the powers conferred upon him or her by section 32 and, if the facts justify it, charging or assessing a greater amount of duty than would appear to be chargeable or assessable by a reference to the language and contents of such instrument.
[Section 32] Commissioner may call for evidence

(1) On any application to the Commissioner with reference to any instrument, he or she may require to be furnished with such evidence on oath or otherwise as he or she deems necessary in order to show to his or her satisfaction whether all the facts and circumstances affecting the liability of the instrument to duty or the amount of the duty chargeable thereon are fully and truly set forth therein, and may refuse to proceed on any such application until such evidence has been furnished accordingly.

(2) No oath, affidavit or statutory declaration made in pursuance of this section shall be used against any person making the same in any proceeding whatsoever, except in an inquiry as to the duty with which the instrument to which it relates is chargeable and, except as provided by section 33, every person by whom any such oath, affidavit or declaration is made shall, on payment of the full duty with which the instrument to which it relates is chargeable, be relieved from any fine, forfeiture or disability he or she may have incurred by reason of the omission to state truly in such instrument any of the facts or circumstances aforesaid.

[Section 33] Penalty for not fully setting forth facts

Every person who with intent to defraud the State—

a) executes any instrument in which all the said facts and circumstances are not fully and truly set forth; or
b) being employed or concerned in or about the preparation of any instrument neglects or omits fully and truly to set forth therein all the said facts and circumstances, shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding $25,000 in addition to the amount of duty of which the State has been deprived by any such fraudulent act as aforesaid.

[s 33 am Act 14 of 1975 s 49, effective 30 May 1975 ; Act 31 of 2016 s 198, effective 1 December 2016; Act 30 of 2017 s 9, effective 1 August 2017]

[Section 34] Money in foreign currency to be valued

Where an instrument is chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect of any money in any foreign currency, such duty shall be calculated on the value of such money in Fijian currency according to the current rate of exchange on the day of the date of the instrument.

[s 34 am Ordinance 2 of 1945 s 59, opn 1 May 1945 ; Act 14 of 1975 s 49, effective 30 May 1975]

[Section 35] Marketable securities to be valued

Where an instrument is chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect of any marketable security, such duty shall be calculated on the average value according to the best evidence that can be obtained of such security on the day of the date of the instrument.
[Section 36]  Effect of statement of value
(1) Where an instrument contains a statement of current rate of exchange or quoted price or average value and is stamped in accordance with such statement, it is, so far as regards the subject matter of such statement, to be deemed duly stamped.
(2) If such statement is proved to be untrue, the deficient duty and fine may be recovered.

[Section 37]  Terms upon which instruments may be stamped after execution
(1) Except where express provision to the contrary is made by this or any other Act, any unstamped or insufficiently stamped instrument may be stamped or further stamped by the Commissioner after the first execution thereof on payment of the unpaid duty and a fine in addition to the duty as follows—

a) where such instrument is presented to be stamped more than 2 months and not more than 3 months after execution, a fine of 25% on the amount of duty payable, but in no case shall the fine be less than $500;

b) where such instrument is not presented to be stamped within 3 months after execution, a fine of 50% on the amount of the duty payable, but in no case shall the last mentioned fine be less than $1,000, provided that—

i. any unstamped or insufficiently stamped instrument which has been first executed at any place out of Fiji may be stamped at any time within one month after it has been first received in Fiji on payment of the unpaid duty only;

ii. the Commissioner may, on good cause shown, at any time, remit or reduce any fine payable under this section.

[subs (1) am Act 30 of 2017 s 10, effective 1 August 2017]

(2) The payment of any fine shall be denoted on the instrument by a particular stamp.
(3) The fine provided for by this section in respect of any instrument shall constitute a debt due to the State by the person primarily liable for payment of the duty on that instrument and may be recovered from that person by action in the same manner as duty. Where there are 2 or more persons so liable, their liabilities shall be joint and several.
[subs (3) am Act 31 of 2016 s 198, effective 1 December 2016]
(4) The fine provided for by subsection (1)(a) shall become due on the presentation of the instrument for stamping and the fine provided for by subsection (1)(b) shall, whether the instrument is presented for stamping or not, become due on the expiration of 3 months after the execution of the instrument or, in the case of an instrument first executed out of Fiji, on the expiration of 3 months after it has been first received in Fiji.

[Section 38]  On presentation of instrument amount of duty to be tendered
(1) No instrument shall be deemed presented to be stamped, when tendered to the Commissioner, unless the duty payable on it is capable of being at once assessed and until the amount of duty so assessed is paid.
(2) But in special cases where the Commissioner’s assessment is disputed, a sum on account of duty as fixed by the Commissioner may be paid to him or her and no fine shall accrue in respect of such instrument until after such dispute has been settled in the manner provided by this Act.

[Section 39] Terms on which unstamped or insufficiently stamped instruments may be received in evidence
(1) On the production of an instrument chargeable with stamp duty as evidence in any court of civil judicature, the officer whose duty it is to read the instrument shall call the attention of the Judge or Magistrate to any omission or insufficiency of the stamp thereon and, if the instrument is one which may legally be stamped after execution, it may, on payment to such officer of the amount of the unpaid duty and the fine payable by law, be received in evidence, saving all just exceptions on other grounds.
(2) Such officer shall detain and immediately transmit to the Commissioner the instrument, together with the duty and fine so paid thereon and the payment thereof shall be denoted on such instrument accordingly.

[Section 40] When evidence of contents of lost unstamped instruments may be given
(1) If an instrument chargeable with duty and which may legally be stamped after execution is lost before the same is stamped, secondary evidence may be given of such instrument and of the contents thereof in any court, but the person adducing such evidence shall first pay to the officer of the court whose duty it would be to read such instrument in court if the same had not been lost such unpaid duty and fine as the Judge or Magistrate assesses to be the duty and fine that would be payable on such instrument had such instrument itself been tendered in evidence.
(2) If such duty and fine are not paid on assessment being made as aforesaid, the evidence shall be rejected.

[Section 41] Instruments not duly stamped inadmissible
Except as aforesaid, no instrument executed in Fiji or relating (wheresoever executed) to any property situate or to any matter or thing done or to be done in any part of Fiji shall, except in criminal proceedings, be pleaded or given in evidence or admitted to be good, useful or available in law or equity, unless it is duly stamped in accordance with the law in force at the time when it was first executed.

[Section 42] Rule as to instruments executed out of Fiji
(1) No instrument executed out of Fiji and which, by the law of the country in which it was executed, is inadmissible in evidence in such country by reason of not having been stamped shall be, for such reason, inadmissible in evidence in Fiji, unless it is proved that such instrument is, by the statute law of such country, expressly made void if made or executed without being stamped.
(2) Nothing herein shall be deemed to render valid in Fiji any instrument executed out of Fiji which is void by the law of the place in which the same was executed for any other reason than that the same was not duly stamped.

[Section 43] Commissioner to assess duty
Where an instrument is brought to the Service for assessment, the Commissioner shall state whether it is liable to duty and if he or she is of the opinion that—

a) it is not so liable, he or she shall impress thereon the Commissioner’s seal and the particular stamp denoting that it is not so liable; or
b) it is liable to duty or fine, he or she shall assess the duty or fine with which it is in his or her opinion chargeable and, on payment of the amount so assessed, shall stamp the instrument with the Commissioner’s seal and a particular stamp denoting the amount of duty or fine so paid.

[s 43 am Decree 13 of 2011 s 2, effective 1 April 2011; Act 38 of 2017 s 7, effective 1 August 2017]

[Section 44] Instruments may be impounded until duty paid
Any instrument presented at the Service or at any stamp office for assessment or otherwise may be impounded and detained until the duty or fine or both have been paid in respect thereof.

[s 44 am Decree 13 of 2011 s 2, effective 1 April 2011; Act 38 of 2017 s 7, effective 1 August 2017]

[Section 45] Reference to the High Court
(1) If the Commissioner is in any doubt as to whether an instrument is liable to duty or as to the amount of duty or fine with which it is chargeable or if the person presenting the instrument is dissatisfied with the assessment of the Commissioner thereon, the matter, upon payment of the duty so assessed, shall be summarily referred to the High Court and its decision thereon shall be final, and the High Court may, for that purpose, require the Commissioner to state and sign a case setting forth the question upon which his or her opinion was required and the assessment made by him or her.

(2) The Commissioner shall thereupon state and sign a case accordingly and deliver the same to the appellant by whom it is required and on the application such case may be set down for hearing in the High Court.

(3) Upon the hearing of such case (due notice of which is to be given to the Commissioner), the court shall determine the question submitted and, if the instrument in question is in the opinion of the court chargeable with any duty, shall state the duty with which it is chargeable.
[Section 46]  Deficient duty may be recovered

(1) If it appears that a deputy commissioner has stamped an instrument having assessed an insufficient amount of duty or fine thereon or erroneously or improperly put on the same a stamp denoting that it is not liable to duty, the Commissioner may, at any time within 6 months after the date of stamping such instrument, call upon the person by whom the instrument was presented for assessment to pay the amount with which, in his or her opinion, such instrument was properly chargeable in respect of duty or fine or both duty and fine at the time of stamping the same.

(2) The aforesaid amount shall be a debt due to the State and may be recovered from such person accordingly, provided that—

   a) such person, if dissatisfied, may appeal to the High Court against the decision of the Commissioner made under the provisions of section 45, in which case such provisions shall mutatis mutandis be applied;

   b) the instrument so stamped shall be as good and available for all purposes as though full duty and fine had been paid thereon.

[subs (2) am Ordinance 37 of 1966 s 57, effective 13 January 1967 ; Act 31 of 2016 s 198, effective 1 December 2016]

[Section 47]  Commissioner may inspect books, registers etc

(1) All public officers and all other persons having in their custody or possession any rolls, books, records, registers, papers or other documents the inspection whereof may tend to secure the payment of any duty under this Act or to the proof or discovery of any fraud or omission in relation to any such duty shall, at all reasonable times, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other Act, permit any person thereunto authorised by the Commissioner to inspect all such documents and to take such notes, copies or extracts thereof or therefrom as he or she may deem necessary without fee or reward.

(2) Every person who refuses to permit or obstructs any such inspection or any such taking of notes, copies or extracts shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding $25,000.

[subs (2) am Ordinance 2 of 1945 s 59, opn 1 May 1945 ; Act 14 of 1975 s 49, effective 30 May 1975; Act 30 of 2017 s 11, effective 1 August 2017]

[Section 48]  Knowingly enrolling any instrument not duly stamped

Every person whose office it is to enrol, register or enter in or upon any rolls, books or records any instrument chargeable with any duty who knowingly enrolls, registers or enters any such instrument not being duly stamped shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding $25,000.

[s 48 am Act 14 of 1975 s 49, effective 30 May 1975; Act 30 of 2017 s 12, effective 1 August 2017]
[Section 49] How duties to be denoted
Except where express provision is made to the contrary, all duties are to be denoted by impressed stamps only, provided that, where an instrument is stamped at a stamp office, a deputy commissioner may use adhesive stamps to denote the duty paid thereon but shall forthwith obliterate every stamp so used.

[Section 50] Cancellation of adhesive stamps

(1) An instrument the duty on which is required or permitted by law to be denoted by an adhesive stamp is not to be deemed duly stamped with an adhesive stamp, unless such adhesive stamp is obliterated by the Commissioner or deputy commissioner or unless the person required by law to cancel such adhesive stamp cancels the same at the time of the execution of the instrument by him or her by writing or impressing or marking in ink on or across the stamp his or her name or initials or the name or initials of his or her firm, together with the true date of his or her so writing so that the stamp may be effectually cancelled and rendered incapable of being used for any other instrument or unless it is otherwise proved that the stamp appearing on the instrument was affixed thereto at the proper time.

(2) If there are several parties to any such instrument, the cancellation shall be deemed effectual if made in manner aforesaid by such one of the parties as first executes the same.

(3) If the instrument is executed by any corporate body or quasi corporate body, the cancellation shall be deemed effectual if made in manner hereinbefore provided and by impressing or marking in ink the full name of such body or the initial letters of such name or the initial letters of the name of the manager, secretary or other person executing such instrument on behalf of such body together with such date as aforesaid.

[Section 51] Neglect or refusal to cancel adhesive stamps
Every person who, being required by law to cancel an adhesive stamp, neglects or refuses duly and effectually to do so in manner aforesaid shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding $25,000.

[s 51 am Act 14 of 1975 s 49, effective 30 May 1975; Act 30 of 2017 s 13, effective 1 August 2017]
DIVISION 2 SPECIAL PROVISIONS
(Sections 52-98)
Subdivision A Agreements
(Section 52)

[Section 52]  Duty on agreements under hand
The duty on an agreement under hand may be denoted by an adhesive stamp which is to be cancelled by either of the parties to the agreement signing the same.

Subdivision B Bills of Exchange and Promissory Notes
(Sections 53-63)

[Section 53]  Bills and notes payable at sight to be deemed payable on demand
Every bill of exchange or promissory note drawn and purporting to be payable at sight or on presentation shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be a bill of exchange or promissory note payable on demand.

[Section 54]  Duties on bills and notes, how denoted
(1) The duties imposed on bills of exchange and promissory notes may, subject to the provisions of subsection (2), be denoted by adhesive stamps affixed thereto or may be partly denoted by adhesive stamps and partly by impressed stamps.
[subs (1) am Ordinance 7 of 1966 s 21, effective 24 February 1966]

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1), all promissory notes made within Fiji shall be on paper duly stamped with the stamp duty for the time being chargeable by law duly impressed thereon, provided that, in the case of a promissory note for any sum over $50, the stamp duty payable on any amount exceeding $50 may be denoted by adhesive stamps. Every such adhesive stamp shall be cancelled by the person by whom the note is signed before he or she delivers it out of his or her hand, custody or power.
[subs (2) inst Ordinance 7 of 1966 s 21, effective 24 February 1966]
[s 54 am Ordinance 3 of 1931 s 4, 1931; Ordinance 7 of 1966 s 21, effective 24 February 1966]

[Section 55]  Affixing and cancelling of stamps on bills
(1) Where an adhesive stamp is used for denoting the payment of such stamp duties, such adhesive stamp shall be affixed by the maker, payee, drawer, acceptor or endorser thereof, as the case may be, and, if such maker, payee, drawer, acceptor or endorser fails to affix and cancel any such stamp at the time of making, endorsing, drawing or accepting any such bill of exchange or note in the manner provided by section 50, he or she shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding $25,000.
[subs (1) am Act 14 of 1975 s 49, effective 30 May 1975; Act 30 of 2017 s 14, effective 1 August 2017]
(2) But if a bill of exchange for the payment of money on demand liable only to the duty of 2 cents is presented for payment unstamped, the person to whom it is so presented may affix thereto a proper adhesive stamp and cancel the same as if he or she had been the drawer of the bill and such bill shall thereupon be deemed to be duly stamped.

(3) Subsection (2) is not to relieve any person from any penalty he or she may have incurred in relation to such bill.

[Section 56] Former cancellation validated
An adhesive stamp on any note or bill of exchange heretofore obliterated or cancelled as provided by this Act shall be deemed to be duly obliterated and cancelled.

[Section 57] Payment of duty on cheques and insurance policies
The Minister shall have power to exempt cheques supplied or issued by any bank or policies issued by any insurance company from being stamped in accordance with the provisions of this Act in consideration of the periodical payment by the bank or by the insurance company, as the case may be, to the Commissioner of the amount of duty payable in respect of cheques supplied or issued by the bank or policies issued by the insurance company. Such exemption and payments shall be in accordance with regulations made under section 8.

[Section 58] Ad valorem duties, how denoted
(1) The ad valorem duties upon bills of exchange and promissory notes drawn or made out of Fiji may be denoted by adhesive stamps.
(2) A bill of exchange or promissory note purporting to be drawn or made out of Fiji is, for the purposes of this Act, to be deemed to have been so drawn or made, although it may in fact have been drawn or made within Fiji.

[Section 59] Provisions for the protection of bona fide holders
(1) Every person into whose hands any bill of exchange or promissory note comes before it is stamped shall, before he or she presents for payment or endorses, transfers or in any manner negotiates or pays such bill or note, affix thereto a proper adhesive stamp denoting the duty payable on the amount named therein, whether such bill be single or drawn as one of a set, and shall cancel every stamp so affixed.

(2) If, at the time when any such bill or note comes into the hands of any bona fide holder thereof, there is affixed thereto an adhesive stamp appearing to be duly cancelled, such stamp shall so far as relates to such holder, be deemed to be duly affixed and cancelled.

(3) If, at the time when any such bill or note comes into the hands of any bona fide holder thereof, there is affixed thereto an adhesive stamp not duly cancelled, it shall be competent for such holder to cancel such stamp and such bill or note shall thereupon be as valid and available as if the stamp had been duly cancelled by the person by whom it was affixed.

(4) Neither of subsections (2) and (3) is to relieve any person from any fine incurred by him or her for not cancelling any adhesive stamp.

(5) This section applies to bills or notes drawn or made within or out of Fiji.

Section 60 No stamping after execution
Except as aforesaid, no bill of exchange or promissory note shall be stamped after the execution thereof.

Section 61 Offences
(1) Any person who—

   a) draws up or prepares for another or any person who makes within Fiji a promissory note other than on paper stamped in accordance with the provisions of section 54(2); or
   b) knowingly and wilfully issues, endorses, transfers, negotiates, presents for payment or pays any bill of exchange or promissory note liable to duty and not being duly stamped, shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding $25,000.

(2) A complaint for any offence against the provisions of this section may be made at any time within one year next after the date when such offence was committed.

Section 62 Bill of exchange drawn in a set
When a bill of exchange is drawn in a set according to the custom of merchants and one of the set is duly stamped, the other or others of the set shall, unless issued in some manner or negotiated apart from such duly stamped bill, be exempt from duty and, upon proof of the loss or destruction of a duly stamped bill forming one of a set, any other bill of the set which has not been issued or in any manner negotiated apart from such lost or destroyed bill may, although unstamped, be admitted in evidence to prove the contents of such lost or destroyed bill.

Section 63 Bills not to be noted or protested unless stamped Every notary public or other person shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding $25,000 who knowingly and wilfully notes or protests, otherwise than for non-acceptance, any bill of exchange or promissory note liable to duty not appearing to be duly stamped.

[s 63 am Act 14 of 1975 s 49, effective 30 May 1975; Act 30 of 2017 s 16, effective 1 August 2017]
Subdivision C Bills of Lading and Air Waybills (Sections 64 - 64A)

[Section 64]  Bills of lading not to be stamped after execution

(1) A bill of lading includes also any receipt given in lieu thereof from the master, mate, owner or agent of any vessel and is not to be stamped after the execution thereof.

(2) Every person shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding $25,000 who makes or executes any bill of lading not duly stamped.
[subs (2) am Act 14 of 1975 s 49; Act 30 of 2017 s 18, effective 1 August 2017]

(3) The duty on a bill of lading may be denoted by an adhesive stamp.

[Section 64A]  Air waybills

(1) An air waybill includes any receipt given in lieu thereof from the master or agent of an aircraft and is not to be stamped after execution.

(2) Every person shall be guilty of an offence and is liable to a fine not exceeding $25,000 who makes or executes an air waybill not duly stamped.

(3) The duty on an air waybill may be denoted by an adhesive stamp.

Subdivision D Bonds and Debentures
(Section 65)

[Section 65]  Paying interest on unstamped bonds

Every person shall be liable to a fine not exceeding $25,000 who knowingly and wilfully delivers, assigns, transfers or negotiates in Fiji any bond, debenture or other security chargeable with stamp duty or pays any principal money, interest or dividend accrued due in respect of any such instrument before the same is duly stamped.
[s 65 am Act 30 of 2017 s 20, effective 1 August 2017]

Subdivision E Charter-parties
(Section 66-68)

[Section 66]  Adhesive stamp may be used

The duty on a charter-party may be denoted by an adhesive stamp which is to be affixed and cancelled at the time of execution by the person by whom the instrument is first executed.
[Section 67] As to charter-parties executed abroad
Where a charter-party not being duly stamped is first executed out of Fiji, any party thereto may, within 7 days after it has been first received and before it has been executed by any person in Fiji, affix thereto an adhesive stamp denoting the duty chargeable thereon and, at the same time, cancel such adhesive stamp, and the instrument shall thereupon be deemed duly stamped.

[Section 68] Terms upon which charter-parties may be stamped after execution
A charter-party may be stamped after execution only by the Commissioner or a deputy commissioner and then only—a) within 7 days after the first execution thereof on payment of the duty and a fine not exceeding $1,000;
  b) after 7 days after the first execution thereof on payment of the duty and a fine not exceeding $2,000.

[Section 69] Attested copies or extracts, how denoted
An attested or otherwise authenticated copy or extract may be denoted by an adhesive stamp which is to be cancelled by an officer signing the same.

[Section 70] As to duplicates or counterparts
The duplicate or counterpart of an instrument chargeable with duty is not to be stamped as such, unless it is proved to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that the full and proper duty has been paid on the original instrument of which it is the duplicate or counterpart.

[Section 71] Instruments of exchange to be deemed transfers on sale
(1) Any instrument by which any property is legally or equitably transferred to or vested in any other person by way of exchange shall be deemed to be a transfer on sale of that property and stamp duty shall be assessed and paid thereon accordingly.

(2) In all the provisions of this Act relating to transfer on sale, every reference to sale or purchase shall be construed as extending to exchanges accordingly.
(3) Whenever land or any interest in land constitutes the consideration or part of the consideration for a transfer on sale, the value of that land or interest shall be deemed and taken to be the capital value thereof or any other value which may be stated as the value thereof in the transfer or in any agreement or other instrument executed by any party to the transfer as preliminary thereto or otherwise in relation thereto, whichever value is the greatest.

(4) If the value so stated in any such transfer, agreement or instrument includes, without apportionment, the value of any property other than the said land or interest therein, the Commissioner shall apportion the said value in such manner as he or she thinks fit between such land or interest and such other property, and stamp duty shall be assessed and payable accordingly.

(5) The Commissioner may require any party to any such transfer on sale to produce to him or her any such agreement or instrument as is referred to in subsection (3) or to make a statutory declaration disclosing the existence and contents of any such agreement or instrument and, until such requirement is complied with to the satisfaction of the Commissioner, he or she may impound the transfer on sale.

(6) Whenever any land or interest in land constituting the consideration or part of the consideration for a transfer on sale is not separately valued, the Commissioner may cause a valuation of that land or interest to be made for the purposes of this section and stamp duty shall be assessed and payable by reference to the valuation so made.

Subdivision I Leases
(Sections 72-75)

[Section 72] Leases how to be charged in respect of produce etc (Repealed)
[s 72 rep Decree 3 of 2013 s 3, effective 1 January 2013]

[Section 74] Leases how to be charged in respect of royalty (Repealed)
[s 74 rep Decree 3 of 2013 s 3, effective 1 January 2013]

[Section 75] Duty not to be charged on improvements
No lease made for any consideration in respect whereof it is chargeable with ad valorem duty and in further consideration either of a covenant by the lessee to make or of his or her having previously made any substantial improvement of or any addition to the property demised to him or her or of any covenant relating to the matter of the lease is to be charged with any duty in respect of such further consideration.
Subdivision J Mortgages
(Section 76)

[Section 76] Duty payable on transfers of mortgages, on appointment of trustees etc

(1) The following provisions shall apply in assessing the amount of stamp duty payable in respect of the transfer of mortgages in the cases hereinafter mentioned—

a) where any transfer of a mortgage or of mortgages is made pursuant to the appointment of a trustee or of trustees under any will, settlement or other instrument or by order of the High Court or a Judge thereof, the duty on such transfer shall be $1.50, unless the substantive duty on such transfer would be less than $1.50, in which case the substantive duty only shall be payable;

b) where any transfer of a mortgage or of mortgages discloses that such transfer is made or executed only by way of completion or confirmation of title and for no other reason or where such transfer discloses that no benefit accrues to the person in whose favour such transfer is made or executed or that no greater benefit so accrues than such person had or was entitled to have by law or by virtue of some other instrument, the duty on such transfer shall be $1.50, unless the substantive duty on such transfer would be less than $1.50, in which case the substantive duty only shall be payable.

(2) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to exempt any transfer of a mortgage from liability to any other duty to which it is or may be liable under this or any other Act relating to stamp duties.

Subdivision K Notarial Acts
(Sections 77 - 78)

[Section 77] Duty on notarial act
The duty upon a notarial act may be denoted by an adhesive stamp which is to be cancelled by the notary.

[Section 78] Deeds etc not to be notorially attested unless stamped

(1) Every notary public who knowingly and wilfully by any notarial act attests or certifies the due execution of any instrument liable to duty and not appearing to be duly stamped shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding $25,000.
[subs (1) am Act 14 of 1975 s 49, effective 30 May 1975; Act 30 of 2017 s 22, effective 1 August 2017]

(2) Nothing in this Act shall extend to render any notary public liable to a fine by reason of his or her attesting the execution of any instrument merely as a witness and without attaching, annexing or subscribing any notarial act.
Subdivision L Partition or Division
(Section 79)

[Section 79]  As to exchange and partition

(1) Where, on the partition or division of any real property, any consideration exceeding in amount or value $200 is paid or given or agreed to be paid or given for equality, the principal or only instrument whereby such partition or division is effected is to be charged with the same ad valorem duty as a sale for such consideration and with such duty only.

(2) For the purposes of this section, “real property” includes leaseholds.

Subdivision M Policies of Marine Insurance
(Sections 80-83)

[Section 80]  Adhesive stamps may be used for policies
The duty on any policy of marine insurance may be denoted by an adhesive stamp which is to be cancelled by the person by whom the instrument is executed at the time of execution.

[Section 81]  Policies not to be stamped after making except on certain conditions
A policy of marine insurance, after it is signed or underwritten, may be stamped only by the Commissioner or a deputy commissioner and then only—

a) within 14 days after the same bears date and was executed by the person first executing the same on payment of the duty without any fine;

b) after the expiration of the said 14 days on payment of the duty and a fine of $20.

[Section 82]  Insurance for voyage and time to bear duties for both voyage and time
Where any marine insurance is made for a voyage and also for time or to extend to or cover any time beyond 30 days after the ship arrives at her destination and is there moored at anchor in good safety, the policy shall be chargeable with duty as a policy for a voyage and also with duty as a policy for time.

[Section 83]  Policy for insurance of separate interests to be charged separately
Where the separate and distinct interests of 2 or more persons are insured by one policy for a voyage or for time, such policy shall be liable to duty as a separate policy for each of such interests.
Subdivision N Settlements
(Sections 84-87)

[Section 84]  As to settlement of security
Where any money which may become due or payable on any security, not being a marketable security, is settled or agreed to be settled, the instrument whereby such settlement is made or agreed to be made is to be charged with ad valorem duty in respect of such money and, in the case of a marketable security, is to be charged with the ad valorem duty on the value of such security.

[Section 85]  Where several instruments one only to be charged with ad valorem duty

(1) Where several instruments are executed for effecting the settlement of the same property and the ad valorem duty chargeable in respect of such settlement exceeds $1.50, one only of such instruments is to be charged with the ad valorem duty.

(2) Settlement pursuant to previous agreement A settlement made in pursuance of any previous agreement or articles upon which any ad valorem settlement duty exceeding $1.50 has been paid in respect of the same property is not to be charged with any ad valorem settlement duty.

(3) In each of the aforesaid cases, the instruments not chargeable with ad valorem duty are to be charged with the duty of $1.50.

[Section 86]  Instrument in favour of object of power of appointment in certain cases not liable to duty
Where any person is specially named or described as the object of a power of appointment in a settlement on which ad valorem duty has been paid or in a will in respect of property on which duty under any Act imposing duties on the estates of deceased persons has been paid, an instrument of appointment in favour of such person in respect of such property is not liable to duty.

[s 86 am Ordinance 37 of 1966 s 57, effective 13 January 1967]

[Section 87]  Mortgage debt or charge to be deducted when assessing duty or value of property settled

(1) Where the property comprised in any deed of settlement is subject to any mortgage debt or certain charge annual or otherwise created prior to the execution of the deed of settlement, such deed is liable to the duty payable on the amount or value of such property after a reduction has been made of the amount of such mortgage debt or charge.
(2) No such deduction shall be made unless the deed of settlement is expressly made subject to such mortgage debt or charge and the amount or nature thereof or stated in such deed of settlement or in a schedule thereto.

(3) Where such charge consists of money payable periodically for a definite period or periodically in perpetuity or for an indefinite period or periodically during any life or lives, the amount of such charge in respect of which such deduction shall be made shall be calculated in the same manner as provided by section 90 in the case of the consideration on conveyances on sale payable periodically.

Subdivision O Transfers of Shares
(Sections 88 - 89)

[Section 88] Transfers of shares not to be registered unless duly stamped
(1) No transfer of any share or shares of or in the stock or funds of any corporation, company or society whatsoever shall be registered, recorded or entered in the books of such corporation, company or society in Fiji, unless such transfer is duly stamped and every such transfer shall be retained in the registered office of the corporation, company or society for a period of not less than 12 months from the date of such transfer.
[subs (1) am Ordinance 1 of 1970 s 2, effective 3 March 1970]

(2) Any person who fails to comply with the provisions of this section shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding $25,000.
[subs (2) subst Ordinance 1 of 1970 s 2, effective 3 March 1970; am Act 30 of 2017 s 23, effective 1 August 2017]

[Section 89] Duty to be payable on exchange of shares in same manner as on sale of shares
A transfer of shares by way of exchange for shares or for any other property shall be subject to the same ad valorem stamp duty in respect of the consideration for such transfer as if the transfer were by way of sale.

Subdivision P Transfer on Sale
(Sections 90-98)

[Section 90] How ad valorem duty to be calculated
(1) Where the consideration or any part of the consideration for a transfer on sale consists of—

   a) any marketable security, such conveyance is to be charged with ad valorem duty in respect of the value of such security;

   b) any security not being a marketable security, such transfer is to be charged with ad valorem duty in respect of the amount due on the day of the date thereof for principal and interest;
c) money payable periodically for a definite period so that the total amount to be paid can be previously ascertained, such transfer is to be charged in respect of such consideration with ad valorem duty on such total amount;

d) money payable periodically in perpetuity or for any indefinite period not terminable with life, such transfer is to be charged in respect of such consideration with ad valorem duty on the total amount which will or may according to the terms of sale be payable during the period of 15 years next after the day of the date of such instrument;

e) money payable periodically during any life or lives, such transfer is to be charged in respect of such consideration with ad valorem duty on the amount which will or may according to the terms of sale be payable during the period of 9 years next after the day of the date of such instrument.

(2) No transfer on sale chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect of periodical payments and containing also provision for securing such periodical payments is to be charged with any duty whatsoever in respect of such provision, and no separate instrument made in any such case for securing such periodical payments is to be charged with any higher duty than $1.50.

[Section 91] How transfer in consideration of a debt or subject to future payment to be charged

(1) Where property is conveyed to any person in consideration wholly or in part of any debt due to him or her or subject either certainly or contingently to the payment or transfer of any money or marketable security, whether being or constituting a charge or encumbrance upon the property or not, such debt, money or marketable security is to be deemed the whole or part, as the case may be, of the consideration in respect whereof the conveyance is chargeable with ad valorem duty.

(2) Where there is more than one owner of property and one of such owners sells his or her share or interest therein in consideration of any such debt or subject as mentioned in subsection (1), then the duty shall be assessed and paid on or in respect of the share or interest of the vendor in such debt, money or marketable security as aforesaid and any further or other consideration, if any, and not on the full amount or value of such debt, money or marketable security, as the case may be.

[Section 92] How consideration to be charged where property is transferred by separate instruments

Where any property has been contracted to be sold for one consideration for the whole and is conveyed to the purchaser in separate parts or parcels by different instruments, the consideration is to be apportioned in such manner as the parties think fit so that a distinct consideration for each separate part or parcel is set forth in the transfer relating thereto and such transfer is to be charged with ad valorem duty in respect of such distinct consideration.

[Section 93] Where property transferred separately on distinct parts of consideration
Where property contracted to be purchased for one consideration for the whole by 2 or more persons jointly or by any person for himself or herself and others or wholly for others is conveyed in parts or parcels by separate instruments to the persons by or for whom the same was purchased for distinct parts of the consideration, the transfer of each separate part or parcel is to be charged with ad valorem duty in respect of such distinct consideration.

[Section 94] Where property transferred direct to sub-purchaser
Where a person having contracted for the purchase of any property, but not having obtained a transfer thereof, contracts to sell the same to any other person, and the property is in consequence transferred directly from the first vendor of the property to a sub-purchaser, the transfer shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be a transfer on sale of the estate or interest in the property of each purchaser and sub-purchaser of the property, and shall be chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect of the consideration moving from the purchaser and each sub-purchaser respectively. In any such case, the original purchaser and each subpurchaser shall, respectively, be liable to pay the ad valorem duty payable in respect of the consideration moving from him or her, and such duty may be recovered from him or her by the Commissioner or the last sub-purchaser who pays the same.

[Section 95] Where property transferred direct to separate sub-purchasers
Where a person having contracted for the purchase of any property but not having obtained a transfer contracts to sell the whole or any part or parts thereof to any other person or persons and the property is, in consequence, conveyed by the original seller to different persons in parts or parcels, the transfer of each part or parcel is to be charged with ad valorem duty in respect only of the consideration moving from the sub-purchaser thereof without regard to the amount or value of the original consideration.

[Section 96] As to sale of annuity or other right not before in existence
Where, upon the sale of any annuity or other right not before in existence, such annuity or other right is not created by actual grant or conveyance but is only secured by bond, warrant of attorney, covenant, contract or otherwise, the bond or other instrument, or some one of such instruments if there is more than one is to be charged with the same duty as a transfer on sale.

[Section 97] Duty on transfer on sale when consideration cannot be determined
When the value of the consideration or any part of the consideration for a transfer on sale is, in the opinion of the Commissioner, incapable of estimation and there is no express provision in this Act applicable to the case, the Commissioner may assess the value of such consideration or of such part thereof at such sum as he or she thinks fit, but so that the duty or additional duty payable in respect of such a valuation shall, in no case, exceed $10, and the valuation so made by the Commissioner shall be final and conclusive.

[Section 98]  Certain agreements chargeable as transfers on sale

(1) Any contract, instrument or agreement—

a) for the sale or transfer of any equitable estate or interest in any property whatsoever; or
b) for the sale or transfer of any estate or interest in any property, except—
   i. property locally situated out of Fiji;
   ii. solely of any goods, livestock, wares or merchandise;
   iii. shares, stock or marketable securities; and
   iv. any ship or vessel or any part, interest, share, or property of or in any ship or vessel,

shall be charged with the same ad valorem duty to be paid by the purchaser as if it were an actual transfer on sale of the estate, interest or property contracted or agreed to be sold.

[subs (1) am Act 23 of 2016 s 2, effective 1 August 2016]

(2) Where duty has been duly paid in conformity with the foregoing provisions, the transfer made to the purchaser or sub-purchaser or any other person on his or her behalf or by his or her direction shall not be chargeable with any duty, and the Commissioner, upon application, either shall denote the payment of the ad valorem duty upon the transfer, or shall transfer the ad valorem duty thereto upon production of the contract or agreement, or contracts or agreements, duly stamped.

(3) Ad valorem duty paid on any such contract or agreement of sale, together with any mortgage duty which may have been paid in respect of any agreement to mortgage that may be contained in the contract or agreement of sale for the purpose of securing any balance of purchase money payable by the purchaser to the seller, shall be refunded, if and so far as the Commissioner is satisfied that the contract or agreement of sale was unenforceable by reason of fraud, misrepresentation, or defect of title, and has been rescinded accordingly, or has not been substantially performed or carried into effect, whether directly or indirectly, in favour of the purchaser or of any other person claiming under him or her or otherwise, and that application for such refund has been made by the person entitled thereto within 12 months after the execution of the instrument or earliest instrument of agreement of sale.

(4) Notwithstanding anything in this Act and for the avoidance of doubt, any instrument of nomination, novation or assignment, howsoever titled, of any—
a) equitable estate or interest in or involving property whatsoever; or

b) estate or interest in or involving property, except—
   i. property locally situated out of Fiji;
   ii. solely of any goods, livestock, wares or merchandise;
   iii. shares, stock or marketable securities; and
   iv. any ship or vessel or any part, interest, share, or property of or in any ship or vessel,

shall be charged with the same ad valorem duty as a transfer on sale.

PART 4 STAMP FEES
(Sections 99-104)

[Section 99] Minister may appoint fees etc to be collected by means of stamps only

(1) The Minister may, from time to time, by notice in the Gazette, direct that, after the time specified in such notice, all or any of the duties, fees, fines or penalties for the time being payable in money in any public department or office connected with the civil service or to the officers thereof shall be collected by means of adhesive stamps.

[subs (1) am LN 112 of 1970 O 131, effective 8 October 1970 ; Act 2 of 2016 s 20 , effective 16 February 2016]

(2) After the time so specified, the duties, fees, fines and penalties therein mentioned shall be received by stamps denoting the sums payable and not in money.

(3) Where any sum comprised in any such notice is payable—

a) in respect of a document, the stamps denoting such sum shall be affixed to such document or such other document, book or record as may be prescribed by regulations;

b) otherwise than in respect of a document, the stamps denoting such sum shall be affixed to such document, book or record as may be prescribed by regulations.

[Section 100] Document invalid until properly stamped

(1) Any document which ought to bear a stamp under the provisions of this Part shall not be of any validity unless and until it is properly stamped nor shall any Judge, Magistrate or officer of any court allow such document to be used, although no exception be raised thereto, until such document has been first duly stamped.

(2) But if any such document is through mistake or inadvertence received, filed or used without being properly stamped, the court in which the same is so received, filed or used may, if it thinks fit, order that the same be stamped, and thereupon such document shall be as valid as if it had been properly stamped in the first instance.

[Section 101] Duties of officer who receives payment in stamps

Every officer whose duty it is to receive any fee or sum of money for any matter or thing to be done or performed and for which payment is to be made by stamps shall, before doing or performing such matter or thing, see that there is affixed to the document, instrument, matter or thing in respect whereof the fee or sum of money is payable or to such other document to which it is required by regulations that the stamp in respect of the said fee shall be affixed, a stamp of value not less than the fee or sum of money payable for the performance of such matter or thing.
[Section 102]  Cancellation of stamps
Every such officer shall see that such stamp is effectually cancelled or, if such stamp is not effectually cancelled, shall immediately cancel the same by punching a hole in its centre adding his or her name or initials and the date thereof so as not to admit of its being used again.
[s 102 subst Ordinance 13 of 1936 s 4, opn 9 Nov 1936]

[Section 103]  Issuing unstamped documents, writs or processes Every person shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding $25,000 who without lawful excuse (the proof whereof shall be upon him or her)—

a) files, issues, procures or delivers any document or serves or executes any writ, rule, order, matter or proceeding in respect of which a stamp has not been affixed in the manner prescribed by regulations; or
b) does or performs or permits to be done or performed any act, matter or thing in respect whereof a stamp should be used without using such stamp or fails or omits to cancel or obliterate any adhesive stamp at the time and in the manner prescribed by regulations.
[s 103 am Act 14 of 1975 s 49, effective 30 May 1975; Act 30 of 2017 s 24, effective 1 August 2017]

[Section 104]  Provisions of this Act to apply
All the preceding provisions of this Act so far as applicable shall extend and apply to the stamps to be used under this Part.

b) its annual gross turnover does not exceed $500,000; and
c) it is not connected to a person whose annual gross income or annual gross turnover, as applicable, exceeds $500,000, where—

a) “enterprise” means any going concern of an individual, group, partnership or entity which trades in goods or services for profit; and
b) an enterprise is connected to a person if—i. the person controls more than 50% of the board composition of the enterprise; or
   ii. the person or the person with other persons controls—
      A. more than 50% of voting rights in the enterprise;
      B. more than 50% of rights to income or dividends in the enterprise; or
      C. more than 50% of rights to capital in the enterprise.

(30) Any security agreement in relation to a security interest where the collateral is crops.
PART 3
CONDITIONAL EXEMPTION FROM STAMP DUTY

[Paragraph 1] Conditional exemption from stamp duty to be granted by the Commissioner in certain cases
(1) The instruments in respect of which conditional exemption from stamp duty shall be granted under and in accordance with this paragraph are instruments of any of the following descriptions executed on or after 1 January 1982, that is to say—

a) a lease of land granted for a term exceeding 50 years;
b) a mortgage which is the only or principal or primary security for the payment or repayment of moneys, or which secures further or future advances of moneys due on account current;
c) a transfer on sale of an estate in fee simple in any land; and
d) a transfer on sale of a lease of land granted for a term exceeding 50 years, the unexpired portion of which, at the date of the execution of the transfer, exceeds 5 years.

(2) Subject to the following provisions of this Part and without prejudice to the provisions as to exemptions contained in Parts 1 and 2, an instrument of any of the descriptions set out in subparagraph (1) shall be conditionally exempted from stamp duty by the Commissioner under this paragraph, if—

a) an application is made to the Commissioner, in such form as he or she shall determine, for the instrument to be so exempted and the application is made—
   i. in the case where there is only one lessee, mortgagor or transferee, as the case may be, by him or her;
   ii. in any other case, by one of the lessees, mortgagors or transferees, as the case may be;
b) such application is accompanied by a declaration—
   i. made by the applicant, in such form as the Commissioner shall determine, before a commissioner for oaths or, at any place outside Fiji, before a person duly authorised to administer oaths at that place; and
   ii. stating that the appropriate conditions of entitlement specified in paragraph 2 of this Part are satisfied in relation to him or her;
c) such application and declaration, together with the instrument in respect of which the application is made, are produced to the Commissioner within the 6 months commencing on the date on which the instrument was executed or within such longer period as the Minister may, in any particular case, allow by reason of any special circumstances; and
d) the Commissioner is satisfied, having regard to such application and declaration and the instrument to which they relate, and having regard to such other evidence as he or she may think proper to take into account, that the appropriate conditions of entitlement specified as aforesaid are satisfied in relation to the applicant.

(3) Where more than one lessee, mortgagor or transferee are parties to any lease, mortgage or transfer and the Commissioner is satisfied, in accordance with subparagraph (2)(d), that the appropriate conditions specified as aforesaid are satisfied in relation to one of them, being the applicant for the conditional exemption from stamp duty under this paragraph of the lease, mortgage or transfer, as the case may be, he or she shall grant such exemption, irrespective of whether or not any of the other such parties to the lease, mortgage or transfer are eligible to make a declaration in accordance with subparagraph (2)(b).

(4) Any Fijian citizen who purchases a residential property in Fiji is conditionally exempted from paying stamp duty under this Act, provided that the residential property is the first residential property in Fiji or elsewhere that is purchased by the Fijian citizen in Fiji or elsewhere.

[Paragraph 2] Conditions of entitlement to conditional exemption
The conditions of entitlement to the conditional exemption from stamp duty under paragraph 1 of this Part of the instruments described in subparagraph (1) of that paragraph shall be as follows, that is to say—

a) in the case of a lease of land—
   i. that the land comprises not more than one dwelling and no other residential property, and that the applicant is occupying or intends to occupy such dwelling in whole or in part;
   ii. that there is no dwelling or other residential property on the land at the time of the grant of the lease, and that a dwelling (but no other residential property) is intended to be built thereon for occupation by the applicant in whole or in part; or
   iii. that there is only one residential property on the land at the time of the grant of the lease, that it is intended to rebuild such property as a dwelling for occupation by the applicant in whole or in part, and that no other dwelling or other residential property is intended to be built on the land;

b) in the case of a mortgage, that the mortgage is exclusively for the purpose of enabling the applicant, alone or jointly with any other person—
   i. to meet all or some of the cost of building a dwelling which the applicant intends to occupy in whole or in part, or to meet all or some of the cost of rebuilding a residential property as a dwelling which he or she intends to occupy in whole or in part;
   ii. to pay all or some of the consideration for the purchase of an estate in fee simple in land which comprises not more than one dwelling and no other residential property, which dwelling the applicant is occupying or intends to occupy in whole or in part.

iii. to pay all or some of the consideration for the purchase of an estate in fee simple in land on which there is no dwelling or other residential property and on which a dwelling (but no other residential property) is intended to be built for occupation by the applicant in whole or in part;

iv. to pay all or some of the premium or other consideration payable upon the grant to him or her of a lease of land granted for a term exceeding 50 years, or upon the transfer to him or her of such a lease where the unexpired portion of the term of the lease at the date of the execution of the transfer exceeds 5 years, where the land comprises not more than one dwelling and no other residential property, which dwelling the applicant is occupying or intends to occupy in whole or in part; or

v. to pay all or some of the premium or other consideration payable upon the grant or transfer to him or her of such lease of land as mentioned in subparagraph (b)(iv) on which there is no dwelling or other residential property and on which a dwelling (but no other residential property) is intended to be built for occupation by the applicant in whole or in part; and

c) in the case of a transfer on sale relating to any land—

i. that the land comprises not more than one dwelling and no other residential property, and that the applicant is occupying or intends to occupy such dwelling in whole or in part;

ii. that there is no dwelling or other residential property on the land at the time of the transfer, and that a dwelling (but no other residential property) is intended to be built thereon for occupation by the applicant in whole or in part; or

iii. that there is only one residential property on the land at the time of the transfer, that it is intended to rebuild such property as a dwelling for occupation by the applicant in whole or in part, and that no other dwelling or other residential property is intended to be built on the land.

[Paragraph 3] Liability of applicant in certain cases to pay an amount equivalent to the amount of stamp duty in respect of which conditional exemption has been granted

(1) Subject to subparagraph (2), where any instrument has been conditionally exempted from stamp duty under paragraph 1 of this Part and—

a) [repealed]

b) such declaration was false and in consequence thereof the applicant has been convicted of perjury in pursuance of section 24;

c) [repealed]
d) the instrument is an agreement for a lease and the applicant is not a party to the lease, as lessee or one of the lessees, made subsequently and in conformity with that agreement; or

e) the instrument is an agreement for the purchase of an estate in fee simple or of a lease and the applicant, not having obtained a transfer thereof, has agreed to sell the same to any other person and such estate or lease is in consequence transferred directly from the first vendor of the estate or lease to a sub-purchaser;

the applicant shall be liable to pay an amount equivalent to the amount of that stamp duty, together with compound interest thereon at the rate of 5% per annum.

(2) A person shall not be liable to pay any sum under subparagraph (1) by reason of his or her failure to occupy or continue to occupy a dwelling if the Minister is satisfied that such failure was unavoidable by that person by reason of a material change in his or her circumstances.

[Paragraph 4] Interpretation

In this Part—

a) applicant means, in relation to any instrument, the person making, or who has made, the application for the conditional exemption of that instrument from stamp duty under paragraph 1 of this Part;

b) dwelling means a building designed or adapted for use for human habitation, including its appurtenances; and

c) to occupy means in relation to the occupation or intended occupation by any person of the whole or any part of a dwelling, to inhabit that dwelling or part thereof as that person’s only settled place of abode.
